The six locations on this year's tour are:

Town to Recognize National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on Tuesday, September 30

This joint media release is being shared on behalf of The Blue Mountains Public Library and the Town of The Blue Mountains.

The Town of The Blue Mountains would like to advise members of the public that Tuesday, September 30, 2025, will mark the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day. The Town and the Blue Mountains Public Library (BMPL) invite the community to take part in a series of events and learning opportunities in honour of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. Together, we reflect on the impact of residential schools, listen to Indigenous voices and explore pathways towards truth, reconciliation and healing.

"The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation is a solemn reminder of the intergenerational impacts of the residential school system," said Mayor Andrea Matrosovs. "As a Town, we remain committed to taking action, listening to Indigenous voices, creating inclusive spaces and ensuring that our plans and strategies reflect the values of equity, respect and healing. We are on a learning journey. Each year, this day is a moment to pause and reflect on that journey and, with intention, take the next steps forward on the path to Truth and Reconciliation."

On Friday, September 26, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., the BMPL will be hosting a free screening of Voices – Lighting a Pathway to Indigenous Inclusion. Produced by Muckpaloo Ipeelie, this powerful film explores how the past continues to shape the present through stories from Indigenous leaders and community members. Following the screening, Muckpaloo will share insights on Inuit culture and lead a discussion on themes of partnership, patience and common ground.

To honour this day, the Town will fly the Truth and Reconciliation flag from September 23 to October 1, with a formal proclamation ceremony taking place outside Town Hall on September 30, at 9:00 a.m. to recognize the victims and survivors of Residential Schools across Canada.

On Tuesday, September 30, at 3:30 p.m., the BMPL invites community members aged 8+ to attend L.E. Shore Library to make orange scrunchies in honour of Orange Shirt Day. This activity reflects on the story of Phyllis Webstad and the many Indigenous children

Celebrate 30 Years of The Blue Mountains Public Library

In 2025, the Blue Mountains Public Library (BMPL) proudly celebrates its 30th anniversary of inspiring creativity, fostering lifelong learning, and preserving our community's heritage.

Since its opening its doors in 1995, BMPL has grown far beyond a traditional library. Today, it is home to the Craigleith Heritage Depot, museum, art gallery, and archives—a vibrant GLAM (Galleries, Libraries, Archives, and Museums) institution dedicated to serving and celebrating the Blue Mountains community.

To honour this exciting milestone, BMPL is hosting a series of free, public events throughout the fall and winter. Each program explores themes at the heart of our mission: democracy, intellectual freedom, Truth and Reconciliation, digital literacy, books, and shared history.

As we reflect on 30 years of community-driven success, BMPL is also looking ahead—with bold plans to modernize services and re-imagine our spaces for generations to come. A full list of anniversary events is included below. Additional details will be announced throughout the season.
