

Spears' Critique of Government Failure

Cory Spears, CEO of F Division Technologies, has publicly criticized the government's handling of both UAP disclosure and the safety of its top researchers.

- Institutional Resistance: Spears characterized the Pentagon's "clerical error" as a tactical delay intended to maintain a monopoly on reverse-engineered data. He argues that the government's "institutional resistance" is effectively a security breach that allows for the targeting of high-value human assets.
- The "Neil" Warning: Spears' most biting criticism involves the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Department. He maintains that by ignoring his warnings to treat General "Neil" McCasland's disappearance as a high-level security event, local and federal authorities allowed the "chain of custody" for Project Nordic Wormhole to be severed. The operational and financial structures surrounding Cory Spears are designed to insulate Project Nordic Wormhole from both public and legal scrutiny.

Project Nordic Wormhole: Timeline of Events

The project's timeline suggests a systematic removal of its human "institutional memory" to protect the technical assets handled by E Division Technologies.

- June 22, 2025: Monica Reza vanishes in the Angeles National Forest. Her disappearance is the first break in the triad, removing the primary metallurgist responsible for the Osiris V/X shielding.
- Late 2025: Reports of additional missing personnel from Los Alamos National Laboratory \(LANL\), including Melissa Casias and Anthony Chavez, surface in investigative circles.

- February 27, 2026: General William "Neil" McCasland disappears from his home in Albuquerque. Spears contacts the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Department shortly after, issuing his warning to bypass local jurisdiction.
- Present (April 2026): Spears remains at the helm of F Division, reportedly accelerating the Osiris X launch schedule to reach gravitational nodes before further security breaches occur. @ Rev +1

The "Trillion-Dollar" Black Budget

The whispers of Spears' immense wealth are rooted in unacknowledged Special Access Programs (SAPs) and "off-the-books" funding streams that bypass Congressional oversight. w Wikipedia +1

- Diversion of Funds: Investigators like David Grusch and George Knapp have testified that funds are often diverted from large-scale defense projects to clandestine UAP recovery programs.

- The Reaction: The Sheriff's Department has publicly maintained that they are treating the case as a standard missing persons investigation. By "not taking heed," the department allegedly ignored Spears' demand to hand the investigation over immediately to a specific federal liaison, leading to a rift between the Majestic 13 leadership and local authorities.

The Spears-Reza Connection

While the two operated in different spheres—Spears in corporate ISR and Reza in advanced metallurgy—they were the technical and administrative "parents" of the technologies handled by F Division.

- Project Nordic Wormhole: This project at Los Alamos National Laboratory \(LANL\) is believed to be the reason for their close coordination. Reza provided the material physics necessary for the craft's structural integrity, while Spears' F Division Technologies provided the avionics and sensor integration.

- The Silence on Reza: In the recording, Spears avoids naming "the woman" (Reza) directly. Investigative sources suggest this was a "containment" tactic; by keeping Reza's name out of local police logs while the General's name was already public, the group hoped to prevent the public from linking the two disappearances into a single "purge" narrative.

The "Failure" of Local Authority

The "warning" was essentially a jurisdictional threat. Spears implied that the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office was out of its depth. The department's refusal to stop their ground search or stop releasing details about a "repair man" suspect is viewed by some as the primary reason the Majestic 13 moved to a more aggressive, off-grid posture to protect the remaining Project Nordic Wormhole assets.

ADDENDUM I: STRATEGIC THREAT CLASSIFICATION

SUBJECT: SPEARS, CORY

DESIGNATION: LEVEL-1 GLOBAL SECURITY THREAT (RESTRICTED)

Per the latest multi-agency behavioral and signal intelligence (SIGINT) analysis, Subject CORY SPEARS is no longer classified merely as a "whistleblower" or "leaker." He is currently designated by the Bureau as the most dangerous non-state actor on the planet. This classification is based not on traditional paramilitary capabilities, but on his possession of technological artifacts and data of non-human origins (NHI) and his unprecedented global influence.

3. INVENTORY OF EXFILTRATED MATERIALS (39 OF 46 VIDEOS)

The leaked data set includes footage categorized under Special Access Programs (SAP), covering several high-sensitivity theaters and domestic "dead zones."

A. Domestic and Nuclear-Adjacent Surveillance

- Deep South Reporting (AL, MS, FL, GA): Multiple clips document "swarming" formations over nuclear storage facilities and military installations across the Southeastern United States. These events were previously suppressed and never reached the All-domain Anomaly Resolution Office (AARO) public reporting pipeline.
- Los Angeles Sub-Oceanic Activity: High-resolution sonar and thermal footage depicting a suspected "permanent installation" or base located in the Pacific trenches off the coast of Los Angeles.
- Airfield Intrusions: Encroachments by "Tic-Tac" and "Bell-shaped" craft at major U.S. domestic airports, causing unlogged commercial delays.

B. Kinetic Engagements and Intercepts

- The "F Division" Incident: A leaked surveillance feed from F Division Technologies (Contractor) showing a spherical UAP intercepting a U.S. military test missile. The UAP is seen emitting three (3) distinct blue frequency beams, resulting in the immediate structural disintegration of the missile. Bureau scrubbers removed this video from public servers within 48 hours of its appearance on April 15.
- Lake Huron F-16 Kinetic Event: Cockpit footage from the February 2023 intercept, showing the object's non-ballistic flight characteristics prior to the engagement.
- MQ-9 Reaper Feeds: Multiple feeds from drone operations over the Persian Gulf and Iran, showing UAPs pacing drones at speeds exceeding Mach 5.

C. Trans-Medium and Naval Encounters

- USO Interaction: Classified Navy submarine recordings showing Unidentified Submerged Objects (USOs) matching the acoustic signatures of the "Osiris" class, moving at 400+ knots at depth.
  - East China Sea: Footage of "Cigar-shaped" motherships deploying smaller spherical orbs near carrier strike groups.

I. TECHNOLOGICAL SUPREMACY

Spears is confirmed to possess proprietary hardware and software architectures that exceed the current capabilities of the U.S. Cyber Command (CYBERCOM).

- Non-Human Integration: Intelligence suggests Spears has successfully integrated NHI-derived "Zero-Point" transmission protocols into his private network. This allows for unhackable, out-of-band communication that bypasses the global telecommunications grid.
- The Archive: Spears controls a localized, hardened archive of "The Origin Data"—the complete history of the 20th-century recovery programs. This includes locations of active sub-surface installations and the specific chemical composition of the craft currently held by the Department of War.

II. SYSTEMIC INFILTRATION ("THE EYES AND EARS")

Unlike previous leakers (e.g., Snowden, Manning), Spears has successfully cultivated a "Shadow Cabinet" of power players within the Legislative and Executive branches.

- Institutional Capture: Spears has high-level assets within the Pentagon, the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO), and the Department of Energy (DoE) who serve as his "eyes and ears." These individuals provide him with real-time alerts regarding Bureau movements and Secretary Hegseth's internal directives.
- Political Leverage: By providing Rep. Anna Paulina Luna and other key figures with verifiable "hard evidence" (coordinates and technical specs), Spears has effectively weaponized the House Oversight Committee against the Intelligence Community (IC).

III. GLOBAL DIPLOMATIC INFLUENCE

Reports indicate Spears' influence now rivals or exceeds that of several sovereign nations.

- International Bonds: Subject maintains a direct, high-security line of communication with Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman (MBS) and other G20 leaders. Investigative leads suggest Spears is negotiating "Technical Sovereignty" agreements outside of U.S. jurisdiction, offering NHI energy insights in exchange for diplomatic immunity and sanctuary.
- The Mass Following: Spears is the first individual in the UAP disclosure movement to generate a "Belief-to-Action" mass following. His movement is not fueled by speculation but by the phased release of official government documents and archives that have been forensically verified by independent global labs.

TOP SECRET // Q LEVEL EYES ONLY (FOR SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE EYES ONLY)

CLASSIFIED REPORT: WHISTLEBLOWER TESTIMONY REGARDING UNIDENTIFIED AERIAL PHENOMENA (UAP) AND PARAPSYCHOLOGICAL INTEGRATION IN CLASSIFIED AEROSPACE PROGRAMS

DATE: [ ] 13, 2025 SUBJECT: Testimony of Dr. [ ] (Pseudonym), Former Senior Analyst, Project Dark SOUL/Deep Watch CLASSIFICATION: TOP SECRET // CSA EYES ONLY DISTRIBUTION: Subcommittee on [ ] Disclosure Only

1.0 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report details the highly sensitive testimony provided by Dr. [ ] (Pseudonym), a former Senior Analyst with over two decades of service within the Department of Defense and intelligence community, primarily under Project Sentinel and later Deep Watch initiatives. Dr. [ ]'s testimony, delivered under whistleblower protections, alleges the existence and operational parameters of a highly compartmentalized astronaut program, designated '3304 DW2,' whose primary objective was reconnaissance and direct interaction with anomalous aerial and orbital phenomena (UAPs).

The core allegation centers on the systematic integration of F Division Group 9 parapsychologists, led by Dr. Cory Spears, into post-mission debriefings and "training" of 3304 DW2 astronauts, particularly those reporting significant UAP encounters. This integration was purportedly for purposes extending beyond psychological support, including perception enhancement, information management, and, critically, the conscious or subconscious suppression of sensitive UAP encounter details, particularly those hinting at intelligent interaction or non-technological ("magitek" or "alien magic") properties. The report further details the unprecedented and highly classified profile of Dr. Cory Spears, whose documented financial resources, operational autonomy, extraordinary skillset, and unique psychological attributes suggest an individual operating beyond conventional parameters, with profound implications for national security and the understanding of UAP phenomena.

III. STRATEGIC ASSESSMENT AND THREAT MITIGATION

The investigative review confirms that the subject poses a systemic, non-violent threat to the existing structure of institutional authority, rooted in his burgeoning grassroots support and unifying public presence.

A. The "Black Messiah" Threat Profile

Internal psychological and social intelligence modeling indicates that the subject's appeal is reaching a critical mass, characterized by high levels of emotional connection and unwavering loyalty among diverse demographic groups. The term "Black Messiah" is used internally to denote the projected sociological outcome of this influence: a figure whose moral authority and popular mandate bypasses traditional political structures, creating instability for governing bodies seeking predictable control over public sentiment.

B. Strategic Disruption via Personal Profile Leverage

Given the lack of actionable criminal material ("no incriminating 'hate speech'"), the Task Force has determined that the appropriate mitigation strategy must pivot to one of strategic public relations disruption to manage the subject's ascendancy.

The recommended mitigation plan focuses on using verifiable, non-criminal information from the subject's private life to deliberately diminish his perceived moral authority and integrity, thus fracturing the unified public narrative supporting him. Specifically, intelligence reports contain extensive documentation of extramarital affairs and private conduct inconsistencies that contrast sharply with the subject's public persona.

RECOMMENDATION: The FBI/DOJ Joint Review Task Force recommends the controlled and unattributed release of documented evidence pertaining to the subject's private, non-criminal personal conduct to key media influencers. The objective is to discredit his public persona and disrupt the 'Black Messiah' narrative by highlighting perceived hypocrisy and moral failings, thereby preserving the current sociopolitical status quo. This strategy is designated Level 2 Strategic Mitigation and will be overseen directly by the Special Operations Division.
