

IPHD

International Promoting
Human Development

SIDE EVENT

International cooperation

People • Partnerships • SDG impact

BIO-INSPIRED INSTITUTIONAL RESILIENCE

AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME

Strengthening People, Partnerships and SDG Impact from Africa to Europe

FRIDAY, 23 OCTOBER 2026

13:00-13:50

VIENNA INTERNATIONAL CENTRE

ROOM M2

Vienna, Austria

English with French translation

PURPOSE & PERSPECTIVES

A high-level dialogue on institutional resilience, people-centered prevention, partnerships and practical approaches to addressing transnational organized crime while advancing the Sustainable Development Goals.

GOVERNMENT & INSTITUTIONAL VOICES

Burkina Faso: National and institutional perspectives.

DR Congo: National and regional perspectives.

Mali: National and community perspectives.

UNODC Regional Officer: Regional perspective, technical guidance and links to relevant regional initiatives and expertise.

CIVIL SOCIETY & SURVIVOR PERSPECTIVES

ANYL4PSD, Cameroon: Youth leadership and prevention.

AWLA, Nigeria: Legal, gender and human rights perspectives.

Survivor testimony: Survivor-centered perspectives and meaningful participation.

ORGANIZER

Prof. Dr Joshua Trust
NTAMBWE

IPHD Executive Director
Opening: Introduction to IPHD
and UNTOC COP13

CO-ORGANIZER

H.E. Ms Bassin Kounouyini
Fatou Angelique

First Counsellor
Burkina Faso Mission, Vienna

CO-ORGANIZER

H.E. Mr. Alexis
MUNUNGI LEKI

Minister Counsellor
DRC Mission, Geneva
Covering Geneva and Vienna

CO-ORGANIZER

H.E. Mr. Mamadou Kone

Honorary Consul of Mali
Vienna, Austria

UNODC
United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

UNODC

Regional Officer

Regional perspective &
technical guidance
Online / in person

CIVIL SOCIETY CO-ORGANIZER

Mr Eboa Eyoum Ismail Joel

General Secretary
African Network of Young Leaders for Peace and Sustainable Development, Cameroon • Online

CIVIL SOCIETY CO-ORGANIZER

Ms Caroline AITUAJE
IBHARUNEAFE

President, African Women Lawyers
Association (AWLA), Nigeria
Online • Followed by survivor testimony

MODERATOR

Ms Fayuli Omotayo Gloria

IPHD General Management

The suggested contributions are for planning purposes only and do not constitute assignments by the United Nations.

PEOPLE • PARTNERSHIPS • RESILIENCE • SDG IMPACT

www.ifmeglobal.org