An unusual restaurant

An unusual restaurant called "In the Dark" opened in London recently. In this restaurant the customers eat in total darkness. They are even required to put their cellular phones and watches in a locker because they both give off light. The owner of the restaurant, Ron Sommers, said one of his goals was to give people a chance to experience what it is like to be blind. He also hoped to provide a place for blind people to relax and have fun. People eating at the restaurant are served by blind waiters. "These waiters have the best qualifications for the job," says Ron Sommers. "They feel secure in the dark, so they act as guides for the customers who can see."

For their own safety, all the customers are only allowed to move around the restaurant with the help of a waiter.

Answer the questions:

15. CIRCLE THE NUMBER OF THE CORRECT ANSWER.

Ron Sommers wants to help blind people (-).

- i) find work
- ii) meet other people
- iii) enjoy themselves

16. Why are blind people qualified to work as waiters in the restaurant?

ANSWER:

17. What TWO rules do the restaurant's customers have to follow, and what are the reasons for these rules?

FILL IN THE MISSING INFORMATION IN THE TABLE BELOW

Rule	Reason
