SHOW RULES

1. This show is governed by the latest show rules of the American Rabbit Breeder's Assoc. Filing an entry indicates acceptance of these rules as well as the rules below.
2. All animals must be permanently and legible tattooed in left ear. Coop numbers should be written in right ear before being cooped.
3. Absolutely no changes are allowed at the show tables. Changes made without express consent from show secretary will be a scratched entry and no entry fee will be refunded.
4. No alcohol is permitted on the fairgrounds.
5. Host clubs will not be responsible for injury, theft, or demise of any animal.
6. Host clubs are not responsible for damage or theft of personal property.
7. Any cages that are zip tied or padlocked at time of show will not be brought to the table and entry forfeited. It is the exhibitors duty to make sure cages are accessible.
8. Please keep chairs and grooming stands to a minimum. Some space will be provided at the ends of the building, but space will be tight otherwise.
9. Host club reserves to right to refuse any entry for any reason.
10. Host club may substitute, add, or release judges from assignment without prior notice.
11. Parents or acting guardians will be responsible for any minors and any damages or injury incurred from disruptive behavior.
12. Carriers must have leak proof bottoms and be stored under coops or in vehicles. We do not have space for them otherwise.
13. Anyone selling anything other than rabbits will be subject to a vendor fee and prior authorization must be obtained.
14. NO animals other than rabbits are permitted in the showroom with the exception of ADA certified service animals. Attendees with these excepted animals MUST inform the show committee of their presence. These animals may NOT be in the cooping aisles.
15. Any situation causing concern not covered by these rules should be brought to the attention of the show commmittee and will be decided upon by the committee.
