Blue Line at Horning is the home of the now famous "Caribbean" Broads Cruiser.

Blue Line is based in the picturesque riverside village of Horning with its many delightful small cottages, pubs and hotels with waterside gardens overlooking the River Bure.
Blue Line offer you the now famous "Caribbean"-style cruisers designed to give you an excellent choice of forward-drive boats for just two persons, families or groups up to ten persons. The beautifully finished Rivieras and centre cockpit Tasmans are also supreme examples of modern cruisers produced with your comfort in mind. The Blue Line fleet is very well presented with thoroughly modern interiors and wall to wall carpeting throughout.

All your boats have:

- Shower and fresh water flush toilet.
- Heating.
- Cooker and refrigerator.
- TV colour or black/white (available as an optional extra).
- Bed linen, Continental quilts and covers are provided.
- Sailing or rowing dinghies are available as an optional extra.

You have a choice of start days and there are discounts for starting in-week.

42/1 Calypso Class — Sleeps 2 or 3

Eight of the Calypso cruisers have a slightly different saloon layout with a dinette across the boat.

Size 28 ft. x 10 ft. 9 in. Berths 1 double or 2 single as you wish. A third or any person can be accommodated on the settee if required. An extra person's charge is payable if the settee berth is used.

Space and real comfort are the features of these superb cruisers which are carpeted throughout. You have a spacious sleeping cabin aft, large picture windows, roomy toilet compartment.

The forward saloon is superb. All-round view, and access to forward cockpit. A special feature is the large opening sunroof over your saloon.

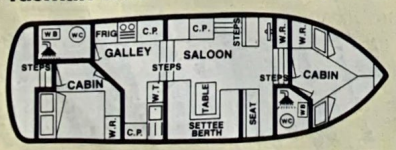

The galley is a good example of modern Broads' design – it is so well arranged that cooking is a joy. It has a cooker, a refrigerator and a stainless steel sink with constant hot and cold water. There is ample space for stowing all your food and plenty of room to store the cooking utensils and crockery provided.

As if all that wasn't enough – there is also full warm air central heating. If you want to accommodate a third person a bed can be made up on the settee in the saloon. Engine is mounted aft to reduce noise level to a minimum. You have easy access both front and rear and there's a forward well with seating.

"I've been on sea cruises but I prefer the Norfolk Broads", says Mrs. Eva Thorne of Aberford, Leeds. She was with Carol and Colin Hardaker and their son, Andrew, Mayrene and Peter Hardaker, Jackie Hardaker and Ian Atkinson.

The party has been on the Broads before and would like to come again, repeating the hire from Blue Line. They were well pleased with the boat they had, particularly the full size cooker. Boatyard staff were good and helpful.

Party points "Relaxing and quiet holiday .... Something different round every corner .... Self-catering is best because you can please yourself what you eat and when you want to have a meal."

The delightful galley of the Caribbean.

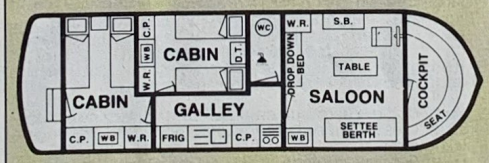

Inside you have one uninterrupted floor level throughout. You have a forward saloon with large windows giving a brilliant panoramic view of the river.
