

Trilogy Tennis Club's Instructor

Get to Know Coach Gino!

We're excited to welcome new tennis instructor Gino Digiah, a 5.0-rated USTA player with 19 years of playing experience and over a decade of coaching competitive athletes. He will be available soon for lessons here at Trilogy.

Gino grew up in the Valley, reached the Top 20 in the USTA Southwest Section, and competed collegiately at Paradise Valley CC and Southern Utah University (Division I). He has since earned a No. 1 Southwest Men's Open ranking and holds a Bachelor's in Exercise Science.

What sets him apart is his commitment to continual improvement—both as a player and a coach. Gino's background in Exercise Science allows him to simplify biomechanics, stroke fundamentals, nutrition, and training in a way that is clear, practical, and effective. As he often says, there is no “secret” to high-level tennis—master the fundamentals and put in the work.
