FamilyLife's Mission: To effectively develop godly marriages and families who change the world one home at a time.

Weekend To Remember Comments: God Hears Our Prayers!

It's a wonderful reality to ponder: God hears our prayers—and He responds to our prayers. Thank you for your partnership with our family and ministry. Thank you for praying for the Gospel opportunities that come with every Weekend to Remember getaway. Please read the comments from the February 9-11 Tulsa getaway and from the March 2-4 Chicago-Lincolnshire getaway and rejoice in the life change that God allows us to see. Combined, nearly 1200 attended—and there is still room for 300 more in the 1200-seat March 23-25 Chicago-Oak Brook Hills getaway—and To Him be the glory. We appreciate you!

It was so refreshing! Lots of great ideas on how to have a great marriage. It was so nice to break away from everyday life & refocus on us. The biblical foundation of this weekend has been wonderful. Thank you for encouraging us in godly principles for our marriage.

Married 23 years

We went from my husband getting his own apartment to enjoying intimacy once again. God gave us our marriage back!

Married 22 years

I feel equipped to understand my wife and her heart. I learned how we communicate differently. We got to talk heart to heart. We both loved writing and reading our love letters. I'm excited to fight for oneness with my wife.

Married 3 years

Before this weekend I was ready to quit life in the marriage. This weekend changed all that. I'm not giving up. I am going to fight and turn this marriage around.

For us this special weekend refreshed our marriage. My husband says this needs to happen every year from now on, 1 or 2 times each year. I say, "Yahoo!!!"

Married 6 years

This weekend helped to open communication again and helped us to refocus on the importance of our connection. It is a reminder, also, that if "we" aren't strong, our kids can see that and they aren't getting a living example.

Married 18 years

This has been one of the best experiences of my life. Brought me to realize God's plan and made me know for sure I am ready to marry my spouse and I think this has been the most important experience of my life.

Engaged

We came here broken, 33-year marriage, but had been struggling. This has saved our marriage. Thank you!

Married 33 years

Knowing that there is a game-plan available and that that game-plan begins and ends with God is a rock-steady comfort in knowing that my family will be led home.

Launching Like Arrows, the Art of Parenting

The Art of Parenting is a three-part initiative by FamilyLife to help parents in the parenting journey.

More and more kids are growing up without faith central to the home. FamilyLife's Art of Parenting will help families put faith back at the heart of their home.

Parents are the number one influence on children in every area of life, including faith. For many busy parents, it is common to treat raising children and practicing their own faith as two separate parts of life, yet they can be beautifully intertwined.

There are simple, effective ways to live your faith in everyday moments with kids. The best way to learn how is from other parents who have experienced the highs and lows of parenting.

FamilyLife's Art of Parenting does just that. It gives parents a simple vision and creative ways to apply their faith with their children.

Through videos, a workbook, and online content, parents will hear from experienced parents in their own words — their stories, challenges, and ideas. It is parents helping parents live their lives through faith.

Persons who order the small-group series kit between March 15 and April 30, 2018, only pay $39.99 for the kit. This special offer is available only during the time before the product releases, March 15 – April 30, 2018, for the general public.

We will extend the $39.99 price at Weekend to Remember Resource Centers through spring 2018 events.
