

Carevan and The Foot Centre to get people fitted in free shoes

WANGARATTA Carevan will be giving away sandshoes, books and warm blankets at the West End Rotunda on Tuesday, July 28 from 6pm.

"Alison Fitzgerald and her staff from The Foot Centre will be onsite to professionally fit these shoes that were donated from her customers," said Wangaratta Carevan board chairman Peter Vaughan.

"There are also many books donated mainly from our local High Country Library and these will be given away with every pair of shoes fitted.

"The wonderful ladies from St Patrick's Wrap with Love organisation have donated blankets to Carevan and we will also give these away with shoes fitted."

Carevan is a voluntary, community support group which has been delivering free meals to the homeless or local families who may be struggling to provide food for themselves since 2011.

It operates three nights a week, from 6pm at the following locations:

- Monday (Yarrunga): Corner of Burke and White streets;
- Tuesday (West End): Rotunda/barbecue area between Ross and Lowe Courts; and
- Wednesday (Central): Apex Park, pavilion/undercover area.

For further details call the Carevan on 5721 2125.
