Welcome and Introductory Comments	Ced set out the background to the Report and Accounts and the Motion to Wind Up the Village Hall Association. The reorganisation of the Trust started 2.5 years ago. The Hall Committee wished to develop the community assets through the acquisition of the Schoolhouse. It was also appropriate to modernise the Constitution and to provide limited liability to members of the Board. A SCIO named Arngask Hall was established. The enabled the Board to receive funding support for the acquisition of the schoolhouse from Scottish Land Fund and RWE Energy through Foundation Scotland. It is proposed to rename the whole complex Glenfarg Community Centre. Thanks to Robin Watson for creating the new media presence through the Glenfarg Community Centre website. Three trustees have resigned: John Armstrong, Mark Crossey and Jim Eodanable. The meeting recorded thanks to each of them. They have each contributed greatly to the running of the Hall. John was property convener, Mark was behind the running of the Coffee Lounge & Jim, being a lawyer brought his valuable knowledge of legal affairs.
Treasurers Report	Ross gave us a quick run through of the accounts stating that there was currently around £60K in the bank. There has been virtually no rental income over the COVID-19 period when the Hall had been closed. All assets of the Village Hall have been transferred to Arngask Hall.

	Ced thanked both Ross and our Independent Examiner, David Johnston, for their work to deliver two sets of accounts. He proposed that David Johnston remain our Independent Examiner.
