GDPR – By entering the Mid Antrim 150 short circuit Race you consent to the promoting club using your name and home town, the details of your machine other details including photographs in our programme and as part of any advertising and on social media and anywhere else.

Entrants - To have a sponsors name inserted in the race program and timing results requires an Entrants Licence and number, these can be obtained from MCUI (UC) Licence registrar Kitty Harland. A competitors licence only allows for competitors name, machine make model, race number, town to be published. Clubs will incur a fine for each insertion of entrants without an entrant's licence. Currently the fine is £25 each.
