From the Rock Musical "Looking Out for Number One"

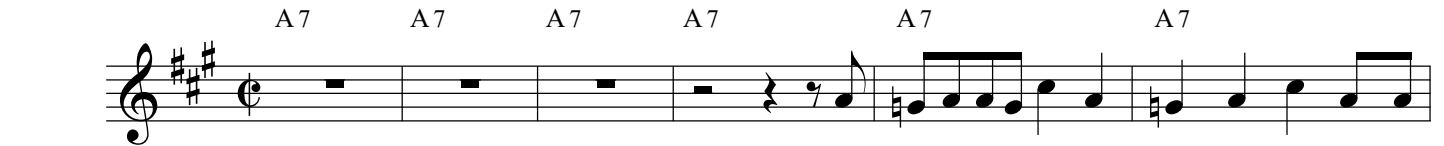

John R. Daniels

Guitar Vamp

Harmonica Intro.

Verse 1

A7 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7

I try to be a big man, strong man, wise man. I'm

7 A7 A7 D7 D7

mak - ing my own rules. I run my life so well that it ain't hard to tell I'm no fool. So why am I red, like the real - not re - red for to - mor - row. I act like I'm so sure but I'm real - ly in - se - cure; I'm so lone - ly. You'd think I'd be al - right but in the mid - dle of the night there is no - one. In the day - time I play games and at night I hide my shame and my — Ev - 'ry bod - y thought I had it to - geth - er.

11 A7 A7 E D7

15 A7 A7 A7 A7

19 A7 A7 D7 D7

23 A7 A7 E D7

35 D E E Harmonic Solo Verse 3

Too bad it did - n't last. I

45 A7 A7 A7 A7

try to please the boss man, do-in' all I can wise to look like a pro. I'm hop-ing peo-ple like me; I do the things they do. Hey, I'm a good Jew.

49 D7 D7 A7 A7

53 F D7 A7 A7 Verse 4

say that I do wrong, but don't you know I'm on-ly try'n to get a - long. I go to church on Sun-day, that is, some - times, when I get the chance. I know all a - bout God, hey, I gave the Bi-ble a glance, once. I don't know much a - bout hell but I don't real-ly want you to tell me.

57 A7 A7 A7 A7

61 D7 D7 A7 A7

65 E D7 A7 A7

69 C Break G D D

I'm an A-mer - i - can, so I'm a Chris-tian; I'm a nice guy.

Verse 5

77 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7 A7

I like the Ten Sug-gest-tions, al-though, some - times,

87 A7 A7 D7 D7

I think they're no — good. Some don't make sense so I do those things the way I think I should. I'm sure God un - der - stands, He's real - ly not the kind to hurt a

91 A7 A7 E D7
