WEEK OF PRAYER FOR NORTH AMERICAN MISSIONS

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

Jesus had a Heart for the Hurting.....

Have you ever wondered what set Jesus apart from all of the other Jews, Rabbis, Scribes, Pharisees and prophets? Yes, His approach to all of the Old Testament prophecies and teachings was revolutionary because He not only understood all of them; He came to fulfill them. And yes, His life in general was revolutionary because He came to show us the Father.

But the one thing that set Him apart to people more than anything else was that He hurt for people who were hurting. You can call it compassion. You can call it empathy. You can even call it sympathy. But He felt what people felt. He felt angry when they intentionally tried to trick Him with their questions and situational psychology. He felt unloved when they looked for opportunities to trap and betray Him. He felt untrusted when the Jewish leaders turned their backs on Him. And He felt ultimately alone and isolated when His Father forsook Him on the cross.

Mike Colston
Senior Pastor

There was not one person who came to Jesus wearing their feelings on their sleeve that He didn't lovingly reach out to, feel what they felt, and offer hope and healing for their greatest wounds. When you consider how Jesus felt what people felt, it brings a completely fresh interpretation to the words of Hebrews 4:15-16 – “For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.”

And no wonder Jesus could speak with such compassion and clarity that the people who heard Him (and still hear Him today) could feel the freedom to come to Him – ‘Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light’ (Matthew 11:28-30 NIV).

Come to Jesus. He loves you, and He wants to give you hope and healing.

Future Events

March 9-13, 2026

We want to make this event special for the young ladies that will be attending the Cinderella's Closet event. We want them to feel welcome and show them the love of Jesus. So we need help in many ways to make this event be the best ever. We need door greeters, dress baggers, people to talk to the girls & see if they have any prayer requests, to hand out goody bags, take photos of the event, help in the shoe and accessories room, or be godmothers These are just a few place to help. If you would be interested in volunteering for all week or just for a day or two, we need you. Please remember that to volunteer, you must be 21 years old. Please talk to Ruth Wiley if you are interested. If you would like to have a t-shirt, go to <https://cinderellascloset.spiritsale.com/> to place an order.

Please bring in small packaged snacks for the young ladies gift bags. Donations can be put in the Narthex or given to Ruth.
