

To Mother and Dad
celebrating on May 27 1966 at
the Short Hills Club,
on the occasion of their Fiftieth

Wedding Anniversary May 27, 1966 which actually occurred, March 4th, 1966 when they were away on their Winter Vacation.

I hope their fine qualities will be passed on to their grand-children and great
grand-children:

My mother's gentle forcefulness
and enormous charm and love of life.

My father's devotion to Christian principles and his dedication to higher education.

I would like to mention that Sally and Freddie Warner's little Joy at the age of one year sits in her playpen completely confident of her beauty. (Her father is right there to remind her if she should forget.)

Barbara and Peter Urban's Jeanne is three years' old and has already made a definitive statement about higher education. The other day ~~I~~ had occasion to stop in at Glenwood School. Miss Irma Scherer, Barbara's

First grade Teacher (whom the Esterleys remember) was standing by the office door facing her 31 students who were strung in a line down the hall. I had Jeanne and Jeanne had her doll. She worked her way up and down the line until she found the right end where the teacher was standing and she said:

---

"I want to learn my ABC's!"

"I want to learn my EFG's!"

I will close this toast with great affections and devotion to my parents.
