

Dear Mother -

Monday evening:

It was very good to hear from you at last, for I was getting anxious about you. at your suggestion, I bought a nice polo coat this afternoon and a new pair of shoes.

Saturday after classes I drove a friend to Bennington Vt. and then went on to Skidmore. The trip was very nice, a little over three hours and I was back in bed by 11:15 last night. Saratoga was very pretty with its race tracks and gardens and Skidmore a lovely college. Jean has been elected president of her house and was happier than I'd ever seen her before. The girls apparently are unsophisticated and just right for her. We had a lovely time together, after three long weeks.

The car is still in perfect condition. I hope you haven't missed having it too much. You've been very generous in not saying anything about it.

Things are very quiet up here now. I haven't been to see Jim and Nancy, but shall do so soon. Mrs Goddard's friend was a quiet nice boy who went Beta. Our room is very ~~is~~ comfortable now and we three are keeping good company.

Write again soon, and keep well.

Much love,
Tommy.
