

HUMAN WEDDING BRILLIANT AFFAIR

ny Out of Town Guests at Happy Event.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shuman was the scene of an extremely pretty wedding Thursday evening their only daughter, Miss Dee, Mr. Thomas Wickenden of South Bend, Ind., were united in marriage at 6:30 o'clock. In the bridal party were the bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Walsh, of Dayton. The best man, Homer Wickenden, of Cleveland, brother of the groom and a little niece of the bride, Miss Bettie Shuman, of Chicago, who acted as flower girl. Miss Margery Templeton of Covington played the Lohengrin wedding march, as the groom with his best man entered the parlor from the library, while the bride with her attendants were met at the foot of the stairway by the father of the bride whose arm she entered the parlor, preceded by the bridesmaid, and little flower girl, scattering jonquils and yellow rose petals. The groom stood in waiting before a bank of foliage with his best man and the minister, Rev. John H. Gross, who officiated with the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride who is one of Covington's charming young women, was handsomely attired in white oriental silk over taffeta, her tulle veil was held in place by a spray of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of brides roses.

The bridesmaid wore white taffeta, draped with yellow chiffon and carried yellow roses. The little flower girl was dainty in her white dress trimmed in yellow rosebuds.

Following a season of congratulations a handsomely appointed course dinner was served. At the bride's table, covers were laid for fourteen of the brides young friends. The table decorations were jonquils and yellow tulle and was lighted with delicately shaded candles. The place cards were miniature brides.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents in silver, china, cut glass, linens, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickenden left for Dayton Thursday evening where they will be guests for a short visit with Miss Agnes Walsh. They went to Chicago and other points in the west Friday, where they will visit relatives.

The bride's going away dress was a blue tailored chiffon taffeta, she wore a hat to match. After their trip west, Mr. and Mrs. Wickenden will go to housekeeping at South Bend, Ind., where Mr. Wickenden holds a responsible position with the Studebaker Establishment. They will be at home to their friends about April 15.

The out of town guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wickenden Sr., Miss Dorothy Wickenden and Mrs. Taylor, of Toledo, Miss Lollie Wickenden, of Battle Creek, Mich., Miss Ruth Wickenden, of Denison University, Messrs. Homer Wickenden of Cleveland, Arthur Wickenden, of Miami University, Oxford, Miss Josephine Ogden, Mr. J. S. Ogden, Ashland, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shuman, their children, Ruhl and Bettie, of Chicago, Mrs. Carrie Charles and Mr. Charles Andrews, of Dayton.

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Dee Shuman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shuman, and Thomas Wickenden, of South Bend, Ind., which took place at the home of the bride's parents on East Walnut street, Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

While Miss Margery Templeton played the Lohengrin Wedding March the bridal party took their places, the groom and his best man, Homer Wickenden, of Cleveland, entering the parlor from the library, while the bride and her bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Walsh, of Dayton, were met at the foot of the stairway by the bride's father, on whose arm she entered the parlor, preceded by her bridesmaid and little Betty Shuman, of Chicago, who acted as flower girl and strewed jonquils and rose petals. Rev. J. H. Gross officiated, using the impressive ring service.

The bride looked beautiful in her wedding gown of white oriental silk over taffeta. Her tulle veil was caught by a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore white taffeta draped with yellow chiffon and carried yellow roses.

After the ceremony a two-course dinner was served. Seated at the bride's table were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wickenden, Misses Ruth, Dorothy and Lottie Wickenden, Agnes Walsh, Lillian Kerns, Grace Wine and Margie Templeton, Messrs. Arthur Wickenden, Homer Wickenden, Charles Andrews, Stephen Ogden and Jack Perry. Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wickenden and Mrs. Taylor, of Toledo; Miss Josephine Ogden and J. S. Ogden, of Ashland, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shuman and children, Ruhl and Betty, of Chicago; Mrs. W. F. Charters, of Dayton; Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shuman and Miss Ethel Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickenden were the recipients of many beautiful presents. They left on the 9:20 car Thursday evening for Dayton for a short visit and from there will go to Chicago, after which they will go to their new home at South Bend, where Mr. Wickenden is employed by the Studebaker Automobile Company.