VERBAL ASSENT - CHILDREN (over 12 years old)

1. By law, children over the age of 12 are allowed to seek health care on their own. If they are able to understand what therapy means. However, parents/ legal guardians are still responsible for the costs. Unless one of the parents have completed the following information, either one of the child's parents will be responsible for paying the therapy account. It does not matter or the marriage status of the parents – either one or both will have to pay the account.
2. The above will be explained to children and parents/legal guardian. If the child is okay with receiving therapy and proposed processes he/she will consent to the terms and conditions with parents, and it will be up to the child's own discretion to disclose information regarding proposed therapy, outcomes of therapy and detail of the session to the parents or legal guardian.
