

PURPOSE SUNDAY

A person is silhouetted against a dark, starry night sky, holding a flashlight that illuminates the scene. In the foreground, a tent is visible, and a small fire or light source is seen in the bottom right corner. The entire scene is framed by a white border.

MATTHEW 25 v 34 - 40

Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Enter, you who are blessed by my Father! Take what's coming to you in this kingdom. It's been ready for you since the world's foundation. And here's why:

MATTHEW 25 v 34 - 40

And here's why:

I was hungry and you fed me,

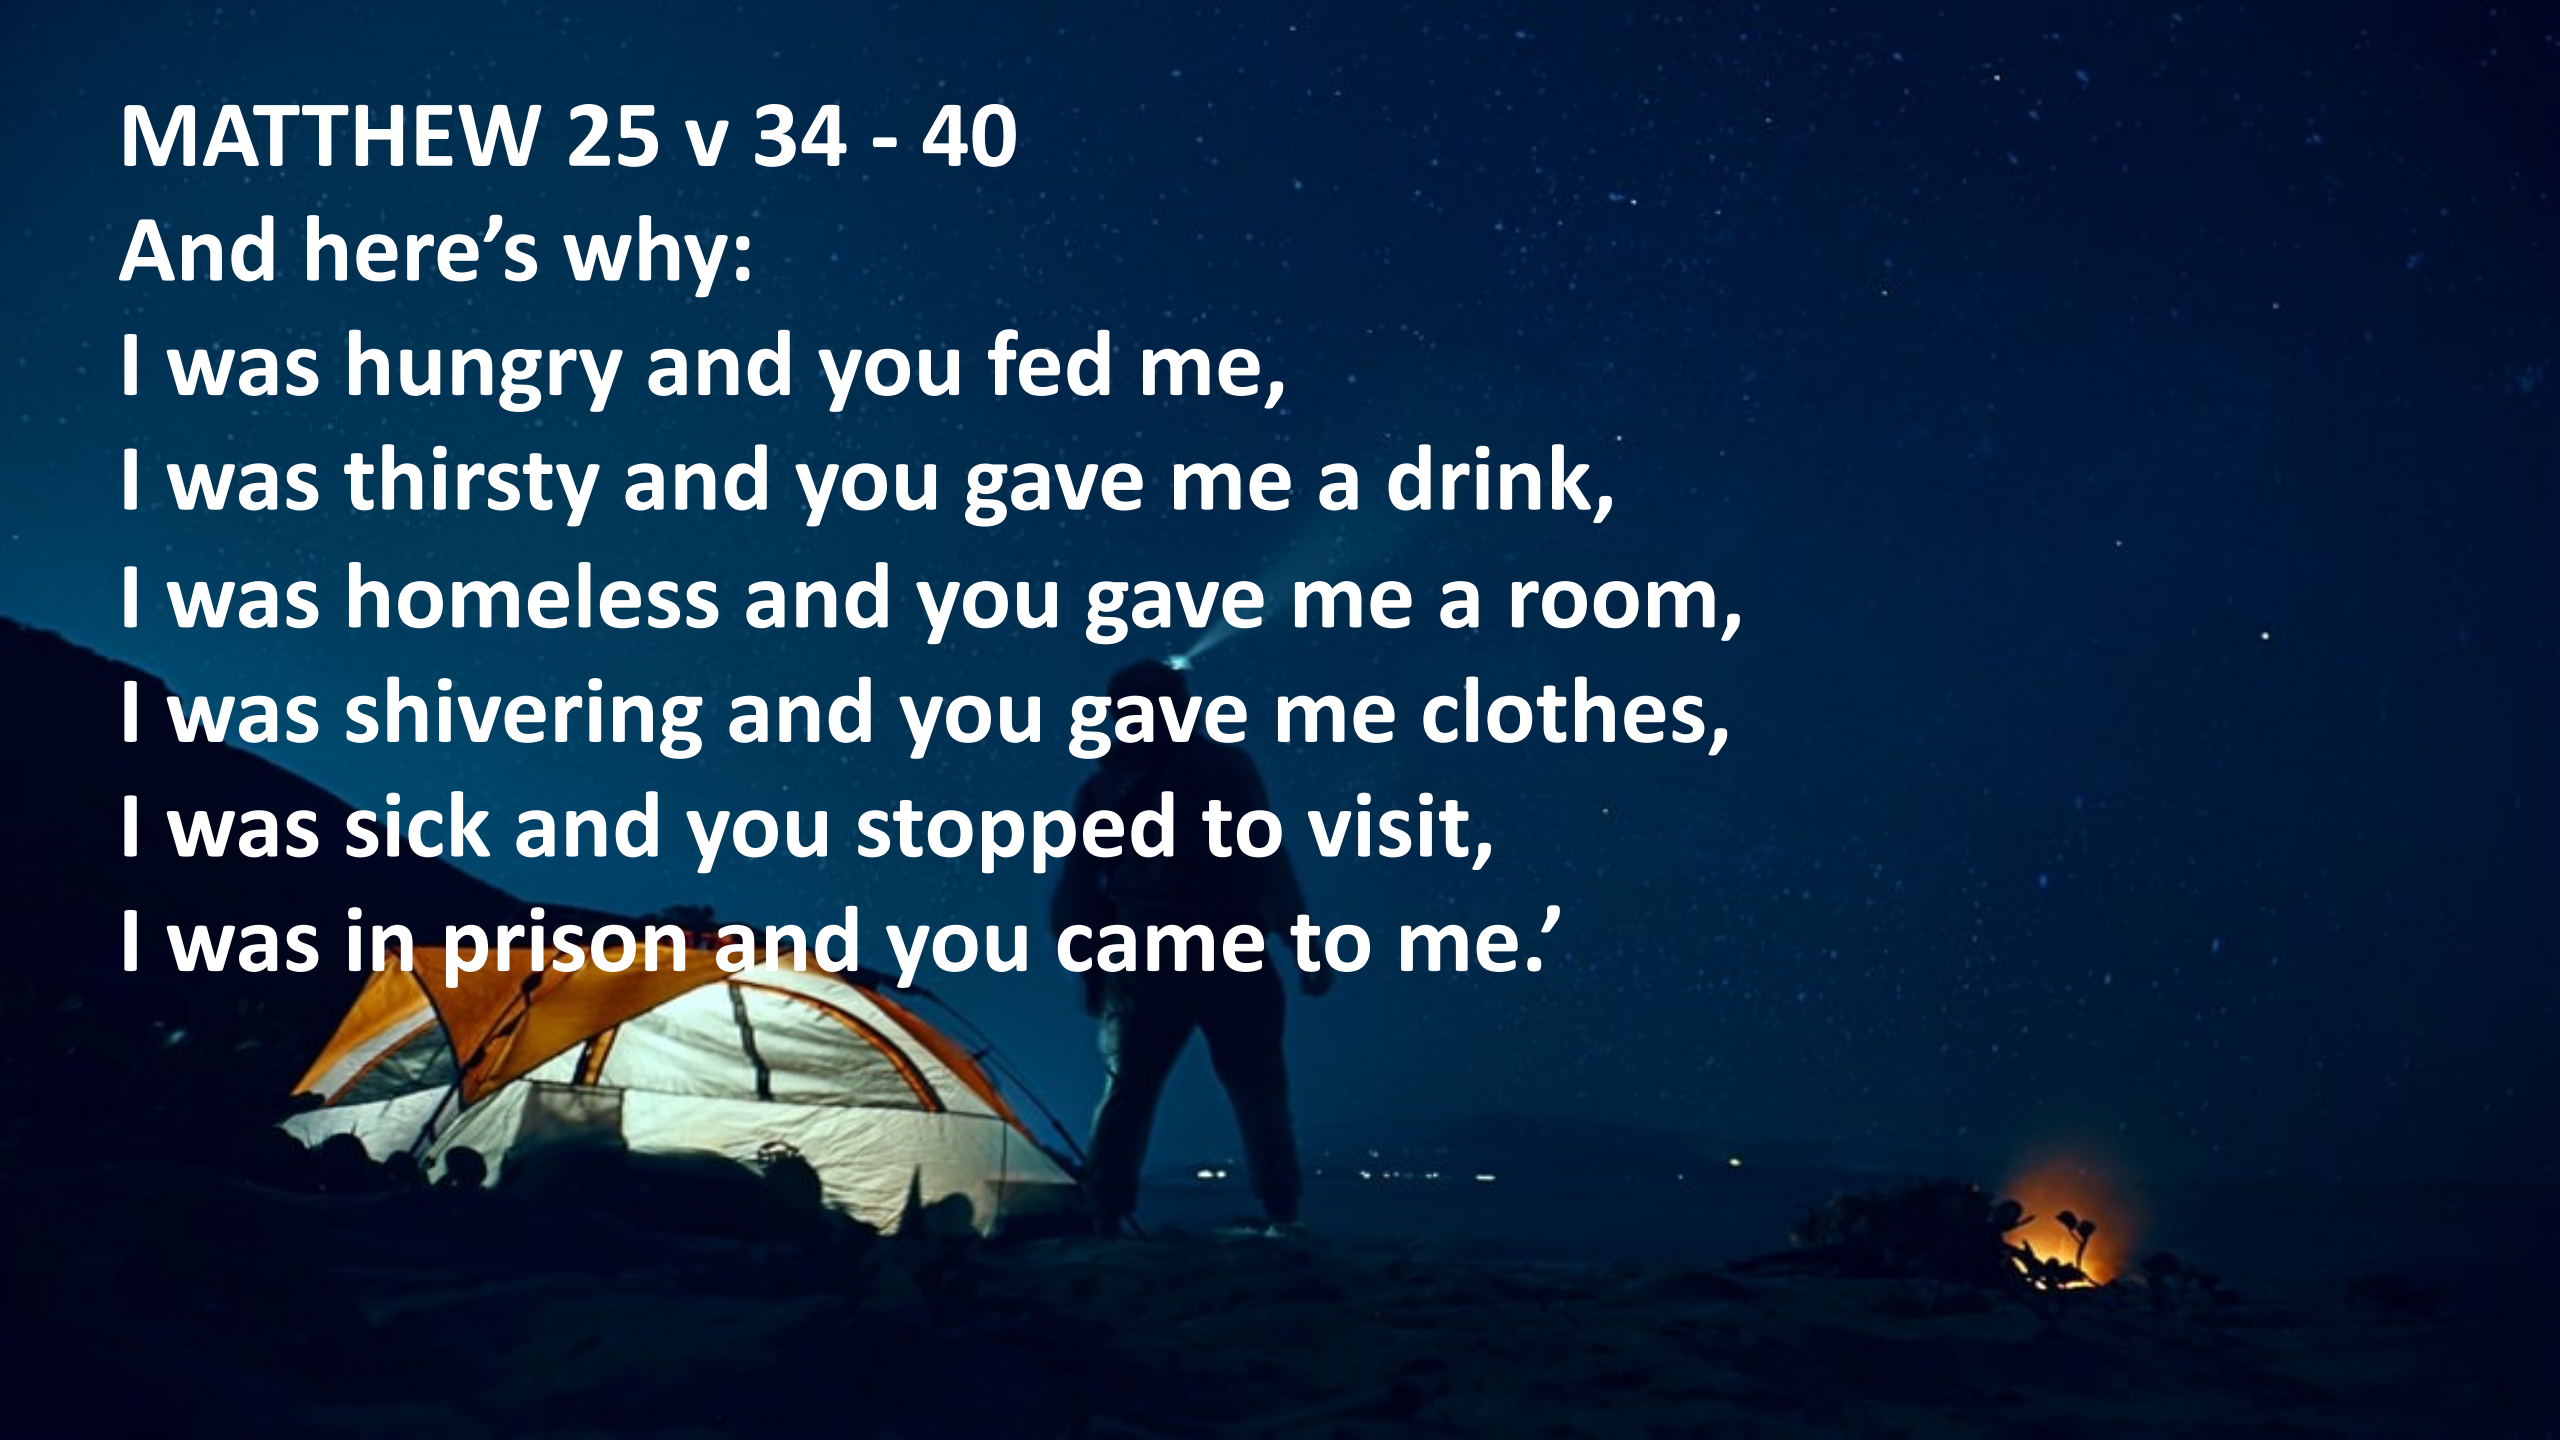

I was thirsty and you gave me a drink,

I was homeless and you gave me a room,

I was shivering and you gave me clothes,

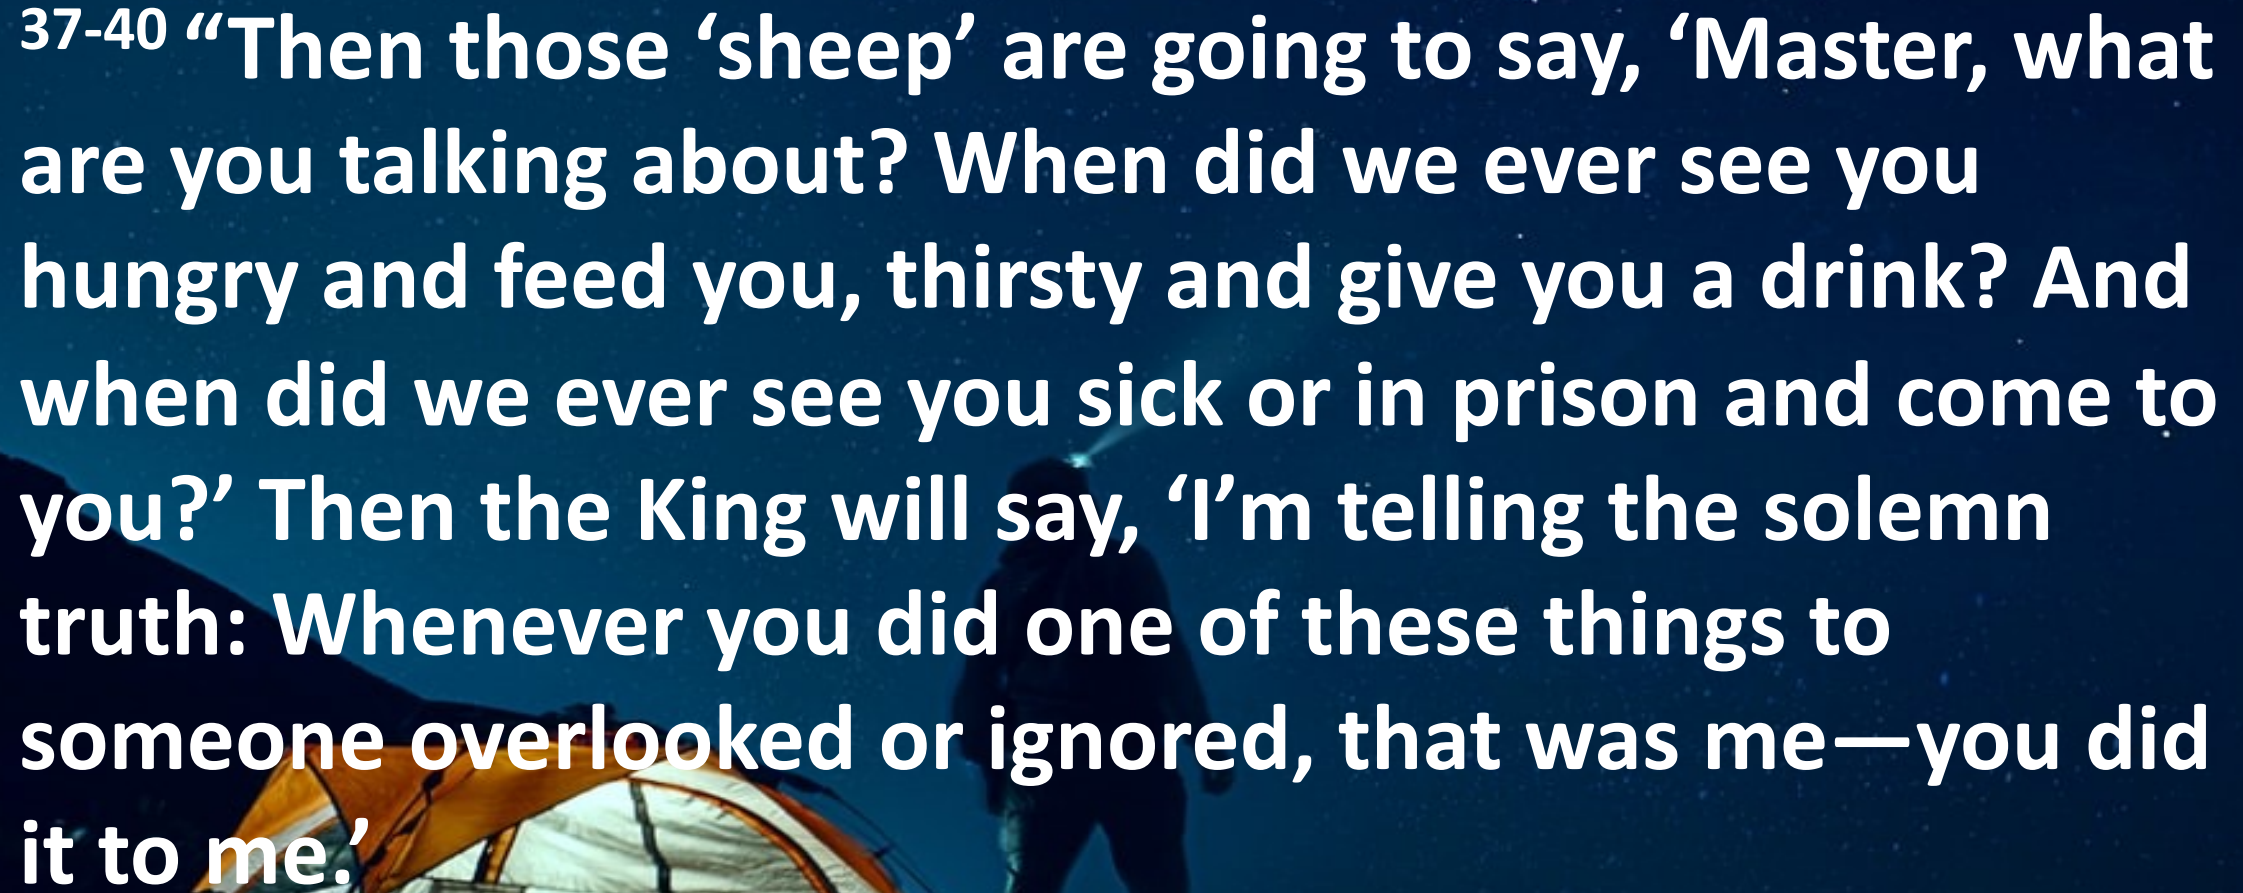

I was sick and you stopped to visit,

I was in prison and you came to me.'

MATTHEW 25 v 34 - 40

37-40 “Then those ‘sheep’ are going to say, ‘Master, what are you talking about? When did we ever see you hungry and feed you, thirsty and give you a drink? And when did we ever see you sick or in prison and come to you?’ Then the King will say, ‘I’m telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me—you did it to me.’

A person stands in a snowy landscape at night, looking towards a tent and a campfire. The scene is illuminated by the warm glow of the campfire and the tent's interior lights, contrasting with the dark, starry night sky. The person is silhouetted against the light, and the tent is partially lit from within, showing its structure and the snow on its roof.

A person stands in silhouette against a dark, starry night sky. To their left is a tent illuminated from within, and to their right is a small campfire. The overall scene is dark and atmospheric, suggesting a remote or wilderness setting.
