Apologies	Councillor Wendy Brackenby, Councillor David Brackenby, Councillor Marc Dryburgh
Minutes taken by	Helen Keech
Discussion	Action
23/014	Apologies - were received from the above members and accepted.
23/015	Minutes of the previous meeting - All councillors expressed their contentment with the minutes.	Proposed by Cllr Peter Moynehan Seconded by Cllr Seamus Leahy
23/016	Declaration of interests - None
23/017	Public session Independent insurance - Cllr P Moynehan requested in writing (to Peter Kelly) the number of events that the village would like to run in a year, as he had found an insurance company that would cover events with public liability up to 10 million for them - this will enable events to run in the village without having to go through the parish council insurance. Dates for future PC meetings - Villagers would to plan ahead and having meeting dates in their diaries, not getting notification by social media hours before.	Peter Kelly to liaise with villagers regarding events and respond to Cllr Moynehan. The PC are still awaiting for the new clerk's appointment to be completed. Once this is in place (hopefully) lots of issues will be sorted. Cllr G Shacklock to liaise with Ben regarding this.

	Planning request at The Gables - Old Butchers. Concerns were raised by members of public that - These were the same plans that had been submitted before - Previous expired application (2019) - The plans have the same drawing numbers - The same number of parking spaces that were being asked for - Questioned thatch being under old tinned roof (conservation area) - Access to the dwellings (Panthers Lane) - Conversion from a butchers shop to a dwelling - Would require demolition of old workshops.	Chair commented this would be discussed later in the planning section.
23/018	Governance - Annual return Cllr G Shacklock signed and dated sections a,b,c,d,e,f on the annual return after previously checking the information.	Witness signing by Cllr Peter Moynehan, Cllr Seamus Leahy and the members of public in attendance
23/019	Accounts - Chair stated that the accounts were 'taken as read' and all the outstanding invoices were agreed for payment.	Approved by the Cllr's.
22/020	To consider the following planning applications NE/23/00400/LBC &amp; NE/23/00399/FUL (Conversion of the old slaughter house)	Cllr's has no objections to this planning proposal.
20/021	Items for next meeting or general interest S Flanagan from the church would like to talk at the next meeting to discuss their planned alterations.	To be invited to the next meeting.
20/022	Close of Meeting Due to no other business - the meeting was closed.
