Day 1. Tue 11 February: Home - Launceston

(D)

Get ready for an awesome morning as we pick you up from your door and head to Tullamarine for our flight to Launceston. Once we arrive, we'll be off to the breathtaking Tamar Valley, with exciting stops along the way to soak in the stunning views. When we reach our destination, you can relax and freshen up in your fabulous villa before we dig into a delicious dinner. We've got 2 whole days to enjoy the fantastic amenities here.
Overnight: Aspect Tamar Valley Resort (2 nights)

Day 2. Wed 12 February:

(B/L/D)

Get ready for an amazing day! We'll start with a delightful breakfast and then take some time to explore the charming Swiss Village and its adorable shops. From Grindelwald Sweets & Treats to Grindelwald Bakery Café and Grindelwald Ice Creamery, there's something to excite your taste buds at every turn! And for those who love shopping, the Grindelwald Boutique and Emporium awaits. As we depart the resort, we'll make our way to the picturesque villages around Deloraine. Along the way, we'll visit an awesome gift shop in Westbury and then indulge in a fantastic lunch in Elizabeth Town, followed by a stop at the ice creamery. With our bellies full and spirits high, we'll head to Deloraine to be mesmerized by the incredible Yarns artwork in Silk, which beautifully tells the story of the local area. After such an engaging day, we'll return to the resort to unwind before enjoying a delectable 2-course dinner at the resort restaurant.

Overnight: Aspect Tamar Valley Resort (2 nights)

Day 3. Thu 13 February

(B/D)

We start the day with a delicious breakfast before bidding farewell to our gracious hosts. Our journey takes us to Launceston and the stunning Tamar River, where we're treated to an incredible Morning Tea River Cruise featuring the breathtaking Cataract Gorge. As we leave Launceston and cross the iconic Batman Bridge en route to Bridport, situated on the picturesque Anderson Bay, get ready to be enchanted by its renowned white sandy beaches, coastal parks, and lush bushland reserves. Take some time to explore the charming village and grab a delectable lunch at your own expense. Our next destination is the captivating Ansons Bay and the vibrant town of St Helens, nestled on the spellbinding Georges Bay. St Helens is famous as the game fishing capital of Tasmania and is celebrated for its delectable oysters. Once again, we'll have the opportunity to soak in the village's allure before arriving at the stunning Scamander Beach. After settling in, we'll head to the resort restaurant for an unforgettable dinner.

Overnight: Scamander Beach Resort (2 nights)

Day 4. Fri 14 February

We kick off the day with a scrumptious breakfast before hopping on a bus for an unforgettable journey down the East Coast. Our first stop is the stunning Bicheno, where we'll immerse ourselves in the wonders of East Coast Natureworld, Tasmania's premier wildlife park. Get up close and personal with Kangaroos, Wallabies, Wombats, Echidnas, and the Tasmanian devil in their natural habitat. Don't forget to refuel at the on-site café with a delightful morning tea. Then, brace yourself for the thrilling Tassie Devil Feeding demonstration. Next, we'll make our way to the charming township of Bicheno for a lunch experience like no other at the Lobster Shack. Picture this: breathtaking views and mouthwatering seafood. Choose from a variety of delectable options including fresh Lobster rolls, fish and chips, Scallops, Calamari, Prawns, Salt & Pepper squid, or a bowl of Seafood Chowder. Health-conscious? No worries! Indulge in a crispy skin salmon and salad. Oh, and let's not forget the option to add some oysters for an extra treat (at your own expense)! But wait, the adventure isn't over yet! We'll continue our coastal odyssey with visits to Coles Bay and Freycinet, home to some of the most breathtaking beaches in Tassie, and perhaps even the world. And as the sun sets, we'll head back to our Resort for another delightful 2-course dinner.

Overnight: Scamander Beach Resort (2 nights)

Day 5. Sat 15 February

(B/D)

After another amazing breakfast, we say goodbye to our Scamander hosts and continue our journey towards Hobart. Our first stop is Ross, where we visit the Four Corners of Ross, each leading us in a different direction: temptation at the Ross Hotel, salvation at the Catholic Church, re-creation at the town hall, or damnation at the old jail. After a refreshing morning tea (own expense), we head to the picturesque town of Richmond in the heart of the Coal River Valley wine region. This charming town, with its 50 Georgian buildings, offers a glimpse into early Australian colonial life, and the historic Richmond Bridge is a must-see. We then make our way to MONA (Museum of Old & New Art), Australia's largest private museum, known for its underground galleries and unique, evolving collection. After our fascinating visit, we head to our motel for a relaxing stay and a delightful 2-course dinner at the motel restaurant.

Overnight: Riverfront Motel (2 nights)

Day 6. Sun 16 February

(B/L/D)

Today, we're heading to the breathtaking Bruny Island, located off the Southeast coast of Tasmania. This foodie paradise is known for its gourmet delights, making it the ultimate culinary tour destination in Tasmania. After a quick 30-minute drive to Kettering, we'll board the ferry for a 15-minute ride to the island. Once there, get ready to be amazed by towering sea cliffs, stunning mountains, adorable penguins, playful seals, and even the chance to spot whales! Our hosts at Bruny Island Safaris will take us on a spectacular tour that includes nature, wilderness, coast, and heritage. We'll explore the Mount Mangana rainforests in search of the elusive White Wallaby, cross the narrow sandy isthmus known as The Neck, and visit the iconic Cape Bruny Lighthouse Station - the southernmost lighthouse in Australia! Along the way, we'll stop at various food producers, lookouts, and beaches, with plenty of time for short walks and even a dip in the refreshing Tasman Sea. This adventure is all about experiencing the best of Bruny Island - from its stunning sights and rich history to its unique wildlife and delectable food!

Overnight: Riverfront Motel (2 nights)

Day 7. Mon 17 February - Home
