Minutes:

Minister's Report: Excited about postcards and bumper stickers. She performed the most awesome wedding, thanks to Audrey.

Treasurer's Report: Stef moved to accept the treasurer's report, Jim seconded.

Business:

- ACs have been delivered and will be installed soon.
- Betty Corbin has been trying to contact a landscaper to fix the railroad tie steps.
- Tech is in place and working.
- Re-entry committee recommended that we not meet in September as previously planned. Hoping to return at the end of October depending on circumstances.
- Due to Molly McClenon's encounter with yellow jackets, all work on the grounds has to be done in pairs or larger groups. There is still a need for outside work.
- September 5th, the previous work day at the church will now be a picnic at Peaks View Park.

- We have been contacted by the Church of the Good Shepherd to inquire about sharing the space. Rev. Terre is to make contact with the minister to get more information.
- Rev. Terre has accepted a third year of ministry with our church.
- Betty has requested all groups to get their budgets in this month.
- Finis made a motion to approve the minutes. Jim seconded and the motion was unanimous.

Meeting adjourned 7:35 pm
