

A Welcome Setting for All Couples

We at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Lynchburg are always honored to share our chapel with couples. Our Gothic sanctuary is located near the top of picturesque Monument Terrace.

Couples of all faith traditions or who have spiritual but not religious beliefs are welcome to share their marriage vows in our building. We believe that each marriage deserves to be honored in the way that is most meaningful to the couple. We do not ask that you believe in Unitarian Universalism, but that you affirm the love you have for one another.

At UUCL we believe that your wedding ceremony should reflect your beliefs about love and marriage. We welcome couples whose beliefs lead them to create a traditional religious ceremony, a Humanist ceremony, or something "spiritual, but not religious", we support all expressions of healthy love and commitment. If you would like for our minister to be your officiant, she/he will work with you to craft a ceremony that is a true reflection of your relationship and the sacred promises you will make with one another.

Our faith tradition and our congregation are welcoming and affirming. We celebrate marriage equality in Virginia. Whomever you love we are happy to provide a beautiful place to celebrate your wedding in our sanctuary.
