Some good news to celebrate this week

- Two parishioners (Sue Dummett and Valerie Howard) who have volunteered to count the collection will receive some training on Tuesday.
- Elizabeth Earland has confirmed that she will be able to play the organ once a month.
- The heating is working well and we are happy with the controls in the sacristy.

November remembrance list

During the month of November we remember those who have died. There are special envelopes, or any envelope will do, into which you can place the list of the dead you want to pray for and place them in the box on the altar. Those entered on the List will be remembered at all Masses throughout the month of November.

Safeguarding

All members of our parish community have a responsibility to ensure that our children and vulnerable adults are safe at all times. For a church to be a holy place and achieve its mission, it must first be a safe place, so the importance of safeguarding within the culture of the Church cannot be over-emphasized. Of course, no one wants to think that someone in their parish community might abuse a child or vulnerable adult, or that they might be being abused within their family. Unfortunately, our church communities are not immune to these sad realities. Therefore, it is essential that we do all in our power to prevent abuse, and to respond appropriately when abuse happens. The online national CSSA website is available to all parishioners and gives details of our national policies and guidance.
