UP NEXT

For our November general meeting demonstration we are happy to welcome pastel artist, Teresa Ruzzo. Teresa, a native of the San Francisco Bay Area loves painting pastel landscapes, both on location and in her studio. While attending a drawing class in the 1990's she was turned loose with a box of pastels and never looked back. Teresa says "Painting is a way for me to explore the natural world with its variable moods & endless mysteries. Pastel is the ideal medium, spontaneous, tactile, intuitive. While painting I enter into a timeless place of beauty and peace." Check out Teresa's web-site to see more of her beautiful work at: www.teresaruzzo.com

President's Message

Dear Members,

I'm happy to say that the member turn-out for our first BAS in-person meeting in 2 1/2 years was really great. There were more than 20 of us and we were all so happy to see each other. Also, it was great to see that many of you brought your current works to share with us and to participate in our friendly competition. We enjoyed a wonderful demonstration (see meeting recap below) and I'm so looking forward to more great artist demonstrations in the coming months.

As a reminder, I wanted to mention that since we were forced to suspend our monthly meetings in April 2020 (due to the pandemic), we have not collected membership dues for the past two years. So now that we can meet in person again, we will also need to collect membership dues again. I truly hope that my attempt to keep the Burlingame Art Society afloat, by continuing with the Popular Choice & Artist of the Year competitions (through the on-line newsletter, Palette), has kept members interested and that you will happily renew your memberships for the coming year. We will start collecting dues for 2023 as of now, so if you like you can bring your payment to the November or December meeting..... or mail it in to: Burlingame Art Society, PO Box 1754, Burlingame, CA 94011. See the membership page on the BAS web-site to see the fees & to print out a membership form.

Lastly, I want to say one more thank you to those of you that made generous donations to BAS in 2021 and 2022...your dedication to our group is much appreciated. Diana
Meeting Recap

Our October meeting featured a wonderful presentation by our guest artist Guy Maggalanes. At left is the painting that Guy demonstrated for us, showing how he does his lovely washes (sky), along with a special technique, using a miniature strainer and blowing paint through it to get the effect of the grass. He also mentioned that he uses mostly transparent colors, loves painting wet in wet and uses one brush for each color that he's using at the time. Thank you Guy...
