Up NEXT

BAS has not had one of our popular Appetizer/Critique meetings (due to Covid), since 2019, and it's time to get back to them. Our May 13th meeting will be our first in 3 years. If you missed last month's meeting, we passed around a form for members to sign up for what they plan to bring to add to the appetizer table. Feel free to bring something to contribute even if you have not signed up. Our friend Joyce Faulknor will be our critic/judge this time around, so be sure to bring a painting and hear comments or suggestions of help from Joyce. We'll begin enjoying the appetizers at the beginning of the meeting and then sit for the critique. You might want to think about eating a big breakfast, skipping lunch and considering the appetizers your late lunch.

This is such a fun event, be sure to join us on Saturday, May 13th from 1:30 to 4:00 pm, in the Fine Arts Room at the Burlingame Community Center, 850 Burlingame Ave. Hope to see you there.....

Next Committee Meeting will be May 11th, 2023, 2:30pm at Sherry's home.

President's Message

Dear Members,

As we all know, BAS is a community of artists who share a passion for creativity and expression. We provide a platform for members to showcase their talents, connect with other like-minded individuals, and learn from others through our monthly demonstration meetings, etc. If you missed our April meeting, I spoke about getting ready for the Annual Art Show that we will put on some time in Fall. The date is yet to be set, but there's no time like the present to begin creating your works of art for participation in this upcoming show. We want to make a big showing.

I'm aware that some, especially new members, may be hesitant to participate, even in our friendly competitions during our monthly meetings, either due to a lack of confidence or a fear of judgment from others. I really want to assure you all that our society is a safe and welcoming space where everyone is encouraged to explore their creativity and to express themselves. One of the best ways to grow is to take an active role by attending our meetings/events, sharing your artwork with us, and contributing to discussions with questions and ideas. By doing so, not only will you be able to enhance your own skills and knowledge, but you will also be helping to strengthen our community and promote the value of art.

Lastly, I'm excited about our May Appetizer/Critique meeting. I'm hoping that many of you will come and don't forget to bring a painting for participation.

Diana

Volunteers

As a reminder to all members the Burlingame Art Society is solely managed by volunteers and we can always use more help for jobs that need to be done to keep us going. We hope that you will consider joining our wonderful group of volunteers that take on these tasks. For more information please feel free to speak with anyone on the BAS Leadership Committee.

MEETING RECAP

Fortunately for us, we were lucky to have Ellen Howard graciously step in last minute, for our previously scheduled guest artist, Judy Gittelsohn, who fell ill and couldn't make it. Ellen treated us to a wonderful demonstration in oils. She showed us how she pre-mixes all of the colors that she plans to use for her painting, before she begins the painting. This way she doesn't have to stop often to mix another color and only has to adjust here and there with the mixes that she has. Below is Ellen's lovely demo painting.
