President's Message

Dear Members,

I so enjoyed our Holiday/Celebration meeting last month and was happy to see so many of you there, even though the weather was pretty nasty that day, but you bravely weathered the storm. Now I am looking forward to a new year of monthly demonstrations by wonderful artists. already in the works. And hopefully BAS members are geared up to create lots of exciting new paintings for us all to enjoy.

This year we really need to focus on electing a new President. Even though we skipped a couple of years due to the pandemic, I have been in this position since 2019 and it's time for a new Coach. Although it may seem daunting, I assure you that this is the easiest of the jobs. It's just a matter of heading up the monthly meetings, both Committee and General, and basically delegating the rest to others. I've seen many changes to our BAS Committee since I've been President, but I'm very happy to say that our current group of volunteers, some old (not as in age) and some new are awesome. So, I ask that you please think about who might be a good fit for BAS President, either a fellow member or perhaps yourself, as we will surely be discussing this further at our upcoming general meetings.

Happy New Year!

BAS Volunteers

As a reminder to all... the Burlingame Art Society is solely managed by volunteers, which means we can always use more help with jobs that need to be done to keep us going. We hope that you will consider joining the wonderful group of volunteers that take on these tasks. For more information please feel free to speak with anyone on the BAS Leadership Committee.

HOLIDAY MEETING RECAP

It was yet another fun and festive time at our Holiday Celebration/ Meeting in December, where we enjoyed lots of yummy desserts while sipping on coffee and Procsecco. Guest artist and good friend to BAS, Sherry Vockel, did her best to try to find anything to critique about our fellow member's wonderful paintings, as all were so good, and our 2024 Artist of the Year was awarded...
