The December meeting time is being moved to 1:00 pm (rather than 1:30), to accomidate our guest artist, Kim Lourdier who has generously agreed to critique for us in the midst her busy holiday schedule, but needs to leave our meeting by 3:00 pm.

Our special Holiday meeting is for BAS members only and hopefully many of you will join in for the cheerful end-of-year celebration.

We will Indulge in a delightful assortment of seasonal treats while enjoying an inspiring afternoon of painting critiques & also discovering who will be our 2025 "Artist of the Year."

So, don't forget to bring a painting you'd like some feedback on, or come just to listen in on the discussion and possibly learn something new. But most of all, remember to eat lunch early and bring an appetite for some goodies.

The Committee Meeting will be Thursday December 11, 2025 at 2:30 pm

President's Message

Dear Members,

For those members who missed our November meeting, I wanted everyone to know how successful our 29th Annual Art Show was. We had an unprecedented amount of painting sales (6 in total), we sold 258 raffle tickets and there were about 200 visitors as estimated by the amount of votes for our Popular Choice competition. Thank you to the members that generously donated a painting for the raffle, which by the way, was very popular and the raffle winners were extremely happy. May I take this opportunity to ask that others think about donating a painting for next year's show, which will be the 30th Annual, so we will have to make it a great one.....another great one.

I also mentioned at November's meeting that the BAS committee has been discussing how the cushion we had accrued in our bank account is dwindling very quickly due to our operating costs going up and up. Unfortunately we have realized that we will need to raise our membership fees by $10.00, to keep our wonderful group alive. And lastly, as a reminder, the BAS membership fees are due January 1st 2026. Feel free to bring your payment with you to our December meeting so you'll be all set for participating in our January monthly meeting competition. See the box below for details regarding Membership Renewal.

Looking forward to seeing lots of you at our Holiday/Critique meeting.

Diana

Linda Manes Goodwin brought a few of her huge oil paintings to share, along with her huge personality to do her fun presentation/demo for our BAS November meeting. Explaining to us that each piece takes her 80 to 100 hours, she continued to share her techniques in detail, from start to finish. Most interesting is her use of stencils to create beautiful patterns, and regarding their use, she has coined the phrase "Stencils are not for sissies". Inspired by artist Edouard Vuillard, Linda begins each piece by researching women and poses for her strong paintings of strong women. We so enjoyed her fun and thoughtful presentation.
