UP NEXT

Our guest artist for the first meeting of the year will be Mark Dobrin.

Mark's style of painting with watercolors is very different than most. He creates beautiful moody, serene paintings, depicting light & atmosphere in such an incredible way that you remember them long after looking away. You won't want to miss his demonstration. Mark's artist statement below, pretty much says it all.

"I love the quiet intensity of putting paint to paper and watching it take me to where it wants to go. Sometimes I begin with an image or composition in mind but more often it all begins in a flurry of water and pigment, brush strokes and marks that lead me to "see" what is not yet visible & imagine what it will soon become.

The Committee Meeting will be Thursday January 8, 2026 at 2:30 pm

President's Message

Dear Members,

I truly hope that you all enjoyed the 2025 holiday season. Personally, reflecting on the past year, I'm realizing that being an artist has the power to connect us, challenge us, and help us see the world in ways that possibly not everyone can or does. While conversing with our guest demo artists through the year, almost all of them comment on how talented our BAS members are and how professional our group is. I find this something to be truly proud of and I hope you all do as well. So now moving on to 2026, let us continue to support each other on our artistic journeys. It's never too early to start on new masterpieces for this year's Annual Show, which seems to be working out great to have in the Fall, around November. Remember, this year will be the 30th Annual.

I'm happy to see that we are welcoming new members to BAS and hope to welcome even more. Remember to pass the word around about our wonderful, monthly demo meetings, etc. Now all we need is for someone to step up and take over the Presidents position.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon, and lastly, please remember that as of January 1st, the BAS yearly fee of $60.00 is due, so be sure to mail it in or bring it with you to the meeting, especially if you bring a painting to show.

Diana

HOLIDAY MEETING RECAP

We had a wonderful BAS Holiday Celebration meeting, enjoying lots of goodies along with an exceptional critique by guest artist and friend to BAS, Kim Loudier. Since Kim paints most often En Plein Air, her critiques seem sharpened by her direct observation of real light, color, and atmosphere, allowing her to assess our paintings with exceptional clarity. Kim took her job of judging and critiquing our paintings very seriously, offering us her well thought out words.

Congratulations! 2025 Artist of the Year

Robin CC Lin "A New Life"
