Title: The Mysterious Package

Although it was only one knock, a faint one, I was sure of what I heard. As I opened the door, I saw a box on my doorstep. It was wrapped in golden gift paper, with a small blue bow and said, “HANDLE WITH CARE.” I looked around, but nobody was there. Curiosity taking over me, I brought the box inside and opened it carefully, trying not to shake it too much in case there was something fragile inside.

Inside, there was a letter with my name on it. The letter said, “Congratulations! You have won a special prize! Inside the box, you will find two entry tickets to the Grand Magic Show this Saturday.” I couldn’t believe it! I jumped up and down with excitement and almost dropped the tickets.

I ran to tell my little brother, and we made a plan to go together. All week, we counted down the days, drawing pictures of magicians and practicing our own magic tricks in the living room. We even made magic wands out of paper and glitter.

When Saturday finally came, we dressed up in our fanciest clothes and went to the magic show, in the company of our mother. The magician made doves appear out of thin air and pulled a rabbit out of a hat. There was a part where he asked for a volunteer, and my brother raised his hand. He got to help with a card trick and was so proud! After the show, we met the magician backstage and he gave us autographed posters.

It was the best day ever! On the way home, we pretended we were famous magicians and tried to make coins disappear but they just fell between the car seats. I was so happy I opened the mysterious package. I hope I get another surprise like that again soon!
