AOC Specifics

The Haut-Médoc appellation stretches some 52 km (37 miles) from north to south. It has terroirs of remarkable quality, with a pre-dominance of layers of (essentially Garonne) gravel, deposited in outcrops, these sites are all characterized by their wide diversity. It is the homeland of Cabernet Sauvignon grapes. The vines live on since 2000 years thanks to the passion of the winemakers.

“A very classic and elegant cabernet style Haut-Médoc.”

« Château Lamothe-Cissac 2017 »

James Suckling.com : 90 pts « A firm and silky wine with blackberry, blueberry and wet-earth character. Medium body, firm tannins and a medium finish.»

« Château Lamothe-Cissac 2015 »

Wine Enthusiast (Barrel sample) :

« Fresh and juicy, this wine is packed with a black currant flavor. It has enough firm tannins to give it shape and structure. The acidity is enmeshed in the structure, just a hint for now. »

Gilbert&Gaillard OR/GOLD: Robe concentrée, jeune encore. Nez mariant notes de fruits mûrs et tonalités boisées grillées. Bouche équilibrée avec une présence boisée bien en place associée à un fruit net. Un style résolument moderne, bien fait.

James Suckling (FEB2017) : 90 pts « Aromas of shaved chocolate, berries and fresh herbs. Medium to full body, soft and silky tannins and a flavorish finish. Drink now or hold. »

Mentioned - Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate october 2016: "2014 Château Lamothe Cissac has a clean, understated but precise bouquet with black fruit, cigar box and cold stone aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin, fresh and lively with lovely blackberry and cassis fruit infused with minerals on the sustained finish. What a delightful Haut-Médoc! Worth seeking out. Tasted 09/2016. »

Wine Enthusiast: Full of dry tannins and black currant fruit. Structured while allowing the fresh fruitiness to shine. A firm core and signs of wood aging promise a future.
