Unit 5 Lesson 6: Trip Review

A Scan the text about a holiday in Tunisia. Find one piece of information about each of the following:

- the journey
- the food
- the hotel
- the activities

Kerkennah Islands

My cousin and I have recently returned from a wonderful fortnight in the Tunisian Kerkennah Islands. It was a package deal and cost us £180. This included the flight from London to Sfax, bus transfers to and from Sfax airport, and the ferry to and from the island. The accommodation was in a three-star hotel with breakfast and dinner every day. The cost even included entertainment in the evenings. I couldn't believe how cheap it was!

From Sfax airport, we were taken to the ferry port, where we boarded a rather old ferry! It took us across to the islands, which looked really beautiful in the evening sun. We were delighted that our hotel overlooked the beach and was just a short walk away. Although not very luxurious, it was a really pleasant two-storey building that was set in an attractive garden with its own swimming pool and tennis courts. Our room had its own private bathroom and balcony with a spectacular view of the calm, blue Mediterranean Sea. The atmosphere was really peaceful – that's what I really liked.

The food was exceptionally good. There was a self-service buffet in the dining room with a variety of dishes, both regional and international. You could eat as much as you wanted! Breakfast consisted of fruit, cereal, eggs, cakes, bread, honey, olives and cheese. There was a different selection of dishes for supper every night and there was a lot of great seafood. I loved the octopus, which is a speciality in Kerkennah.

We weren't bored for a moment. One day we hired a taxi and went on a tour of the island. We saw the villages where the fishermen catch octopus in clay pots. Another day we went for a camel ride on the beach, and we even hired surfboards from the hotel and learnt to windsurf. We also went for a ride in a donkey cart and toured some villages.

What really impressed me was the hospitality of the local people. Several islanders invited us into their homes for mint tea and cakes. We also took the ferry back to the mainland to see the magnificent Roman theatre at El Jem. Something else that we really enjoyed was the free entertainment in the hotel after supper. One evening some local men gave an incredible display of lying on a bed of nails and glass, walking over hot coals, breathing fire and letting scorpions walk all over their faces! We shall certainly never forget that holiday.

To the right of the text, there are three photographs: a group of medical professionals in a meeting, a modern hospital interior with blue lighting, and a group of people swimming on a beach.

 Medical Beirut

 Beirut is famous for its hospitals, which provide high-quality and affordable healthcare.

 The city has around 11,500 doctors who have trained internationally.

 Treatment that is organized by services such as Cedarmed and Medical Tourism Lebanon can include travel, treatment and recovery.

 The most popular procedures people travel to Beirut for are plastic surgeries, which are 70% of all its medical tourism.

A

Today it is more important than ever to ensure that we take enough breaks and holidays. Life is so fast and we spend such a large part of our time working hard that we really need to take sufficient time out. If we don't, the pressure of life can affect both our physical and mental health.

B

The stress of modern life can cause severe problems. It can cause high blood pressure, which can then cause strokes and heart attacks. It also has an effect on our minds. If we are always on the move, we don't always notice how far we push our bodies. We don't eat regular meals, we don't get enough sleep and our free time is often interrupted by phone calls. The human body cannot continue like this indefinitely. Both brain and body need a break. If we push them too far, they will eventually let us down.

C

There are more and more 'workaholics' these days who think that their work is too important to leave in the hands of others. These people cannot bear to be away from the office for more than a few hours. They put off taking holidays or breaks because there is always another deadline or another deal around the corner. They often discover too late that there is more to life than work.

D

People like this risk hurting not only their health but their personal relationships, too. Everyone needs to spend time with family or friends, and this time needs to be more than the occasional snatched hour here or there. People who are close to us need to know that we care about them. Giving them a significant amount of our time is how we show this. Holiday time can give us this opportunity.

E

Holidays are important for everyone, not just the businessman. We all need a change of scene and a change of pace. We need to relax and take our minds off work, school, the house or whatever problems are worrying us at the time. It doesn't matter whether we choose to spend this time lying on a beach, trekking through rainforests or sightseeing. What is important is the change. A change of routine often helps us to look at our own lives in a different way. Holidays are vital to our general well-being. And leaving the mobile phone switched off. That is vital, too!

C Now do Exercises A to D on pages 94 and 95 of the Workbook.
