

The Parish Ponds are precious “blue spaces” which act as oases in the urban fringe, giving wildlife safe passage and offering people places to pause, explore nature, exercise, reflect and connect with their surroundings. Read on and join us on a brief journey through some of the highlights.

