HOLY ABUNDANCE

The Spirit says,

“Holy abundance—it will rock our world. Say “never” to the things that cause lack in your lives. Always have open ears and an open mind to My many givings toward you and yours. Always say “yes”. Always receive. Delight yourselves in My delight.

Don’t let the world spin you around and around in their tricks and traps. Say “no” to their invitations and their nagging.

Run to meet Me every morning. We will sing and dance together throughout your days. Weep no longer over your losses. Rein in your fears and allow My blanket of love to cover any cold and restless places in your heart and soul. My pleasure is to heal you and fill you with power to run toward the finish line of My approval. We will run together! Side by side we will stroll in victorious stance and structure. Your stature shall reach My maturity and I will be well pleased. I will sing songs of victory over you, for you are My beloved child and My dear delight.

Destruction shall reign no more in your days and delightfulness shall return on wings of love. Keep hope alive in your heart of hearts and stand the test of time.

Pressures will not push you down. Deception will not divide your righteous thinking. Forward momentum shall thrust you into new realms of victory in life, and your end shall be glorious. A garden you shall be for the nations of hungry people who do not know of My gracious hand.

Develop My ways of thinking within you and guard the places I treasure. Wake up to a newness of life that I have birthed within you. You shall no longer harbor dead things. One by one your steps shall stride toward My goals for you. Your continued discipline shall unravel the threads of your ‘self-garment’, and you shall be clothed in a priesthood robe of rightness and royalty.

Delight, delight, delight yourself in Me! Your victory will come no other way. You shall then see the eternal pleasures of My heart.”
