THE MUSIC OF HEAVEN IS IN YOU!

“There is much to learn in these troubled days. Keep your heart in tune to the music of heaven and your ears shall hear the songs of wisdom and might. There is no greater triumph!

There is a shofar within your innermost being that longs to sound out My glorious praise. You must sound it loud and clear, for there are many hearts who long to hear the sounds of deliverance and inner peace.

Surround yourself with the praises of many angels, for they will teach you how to sing in the night seasons of your life.

Worry not about the shakings of this earth and do not let your heart be afraid. I have the whole world and beyond in My hands. Things seen and things unseen are never as strong as your faith in Me. Bounce back from moments of disbelief and despair as your very life depends on it.

Research My words of old and rehearse My ‘now’ words as they together will usher you into new and higher places. In these places you will experience victory as your old nature dissolves away and the newness of My revelatory nature comes alive in you.

Trust not in the things this world offers, nor the substances that give your flesh comfort upon comfort. This is vain and so very temporary. You must submit your flesh to My inflowing of life, for your flesh is ever decaying into oldness and weakness. Only I can strengthen your frame and uphold your standing upon the earth. Lean on Me.

Busyness is not the answer to personal fulfillment. Divine gifts of fulfillment and pleasure come only through your spirit, not your flesh.

Say ‘good-bye’ to temptations of doing it your way. Learn to say ‘yes’ whenever you feel My presence rise up in you. It is through your ‘yes’ that I can work mighty works through you.

Do not delay nor be encumbered to obey. You must learn to see with My eyes and love with My love. There is no other fruitful way.

Settle down in My promises for you. I will always make a way. The peace you want and need is only found in Me. I AM your hiding place of refuge.”
