

Soul Ascension Through Inner Alchemical Mastery

by Pedro Lima

Every harsh challenge, cycles of hardships, adversity, chaotic emotional and mental energetic reflections unfolded for me to turn inward, diving into my Soul's infinite deep cosmic wisdom developed from many, many past lives and this life conscious ascension.

My path was never a breath of unlucky, bad, unfortunate, or coincidental egoic categorization, judgments. It was and is a divine blessing that allowed me to let go, surrendering to the flow of the Universe, alchemizing fear, rediscover myself through illusions, fear, binding, destructive and negative projections of others.

It meant for me to find my way back to alignment with Soul, integrating all aspects of self, whole, one with all that is.

I was not and I am not a victim of life. I am the co-creator of my reality, accountable for what energies, thoughts, intentions, and actions, I want to cultivate, and that empower me in sovereign, authentic, and creative truth.

I rely on my inner knowing, inner compass to guide me in each moment, present, embodying integrity and unity consciousness, with unwavering faith, love, and trust on Universal divine harmony and justice.

I am solely responsible for my inner world, inner work, regardless of what is presented to me in each experiences.

I am not defined by anyone and anything outside myself. I am sovereign, authentic, the creative expression of true love that does not have any shallow, egoic manipulative strings attached.

I am the sovereign embodiment of my pure divine essence, the owner of my energy, not anyone else. We always will reap what we sown in divine order.
