

You Can Choose to cling to egoic Illusion, distortion, and ignorance, but You Cannot escape Divine Order

by Pedro Lima

Petty, delusional, jealous, envious, insecure, narcissistic, corrupt, hollow, entitled, and bitter soulless individuals will never want others to rise. They despise those who walk life with authenticity, inner sovereignty, integrity, and truth, those who radiate from their essence and refuse to self-betray for anyone's comfort or validation.

It eats the hollow, petty narcissist alive because they cannot bend, control, deceive, sway, manipulate, play emotional binding games to plant seeds of unworthiness, codependency, and validation in a sovereign soul. They cannot act as a parasite to syphon a sovereign soul's energy.

Their prideful ignorance, envy, jealousy, and malicious intentions, the desire to tear others down, to celebrate another's downfall, to orchestrate slander, gossip, and smear campaigns in search of sympathy, validation, to destroy others' character, reputation, all of it is the path to their own self-destruction.

While they obsess over controlling others, they fail to “mind their own business,” and in doing so, they bind themselves to the very darkness they project.

We are all accountable for the energy we put into this world.

When one chooses to project malice, jealousy, deceit, or fear-based attachments, consequences follow, not only in the physical realm but in the spiritual one as well.

Ignorance is a choice.

Egoic delusion is a choice.

Malicious intent is a choice.

But Divine Judgment is not.

Divine Order does not lie, choose sides, judge, or bend to egoic agendas and timelines.

It returns in divine timing to each soul exactly what they have sown. Always.
