

Untethered - A Transmission of Inner Authority

by Pedro Lima

I am self-made, conscious, present, sovereign, independent, self-validated, self-actualized, and self-reliant.

I owe nothing to anyone, and I am not bound by any external identities, attachments, or narratives.

I do not affiliate, depend, or submit my power to any person, group, institution, or ideology.

I stand free from codependency, subservience, and the egoic conditioning that drain authenticity.

My strength rises from within,
from my inner compass,
from the wisdom encoded in my Soul, from the divine blueprint that has guided me long before this lifetime.

I walk aligned, inspired, grounded, and guided by the Universe itself.

I co-create a purposeful, authentic life that resonates with my Soul's core values, not with collective illusions or societal scripts.

I remain detached from everything that attempts to distort or diminish my truth, the noise of opinions, expectations, false projections, distractions, or egoic controlling hierarchical corrupt narratives.

None of these can stop me.

I am here to learn, grow, ascend, evolve, and embody my inner truth unapologetically.

I am sovereign in essence.

Uncompromised in spirit.

Unshakable in truth.

Unbound in purpose.
