

The Gateways of Soul Betrayal

by Pedro Lima

Complacency, obedience, compliance, and subservience are gateways of Soul betrayal. We are indoctrinated since childhood to bow, obey, comply and follow without question the false authority figures, hierarchical corrupt and parasitic coercive systems, structures, narratives, cultural propaganda, divisive self-serving stories meant to bind the collective through fear, unworthiness, codependency, shaping the collective beliefs, behaviors, suppressing, diminishing their inner authentic sovereign truth, unique soul blueprint voices, essence, disseminating fear, scarcity, and punishment as tools of prideful ignorance, deception, manipulation, striving to sustain a corrupt, soulless, feudal narcissistic societal landscape where truth is denied, neglected for the sake fitting into the illusions of external approval, bound by the egoic conditional acceptance, expectations, judgments, delusional controlling attachments, curated false identities meant to sustain the drama, the chaos, the self-deception, and self-betrayal inauthentic show.

“Complacency and obedience are the quiet openings through which soul betrayal begins. When a society demands unquestioned obedience, it dims sovereignty, mutes truth, and elevates illusion above authenticity.” - Pedro
