

The normalization of Tyranny in dysfunctional ego-based narcissistic hollow societies

by Pedro Lima

A narcissistic society is built on false hierarchies, false authority, and fear-based systems that normalize self-betrayal, exploitation, codependency, and subservience.

Hierarchical roles replace truth.
Titles replace integrity.
Control replaces conscious awareness.

Greed is excused, corruption of false authority figures exempted.
Obedience, compliance, codependency, subservience, and Ignorance are rewarded.
Self-deception is normalized, so long as it sustains parasitic narcissistic societal dysfunctional systemic indoctrinated self-betrayal illusions.

Entitled, prideful, hollow elites hoard power and wealth from inner emptiness clinging to dominance to avoid facing their own lack of inner substance, dignity, integrity, and self-accountability.

But no illusion escapes divine karmic law.

What is exploited will be accounted for.
What is stolen will be returned.
What is built on fear will collapse.

We always will reap what we have sown.

“Self-Victimization and narcissistic delusional grandiosity are two curated fragmented egoic masks worn by the same fear: the refusal to face oneself.” - Pedro
