

Sovereign Self-Authority - A Declaration of Inner Alignment

by Pedro Lima

My inherent self-worth, honor, integrity, character, authenticity, independence, creativity, sovereignty, and truth are not approval-dependent, measured, or defined by any “external governance” system, ID badge, title, corporate role, false hierarchies, or curated false authorities.

My self-identity does not have egoic, narcissistic, cultural, or institutional societal binding strings attached.

I do not rely, trust, or am influenced, coerced, or swayed by parasitic, insecure people or systems of indoctrination that foster self-deception and self-betrayal.

I do not please or appease anyone or any system for validation, belonging, safety, and acceptance.

I rely solely on my inner compass, inner knowing, and inner wisdom to guide me on my journey.

I do not consent to anyone or anything outside me to be entitled to my sacred sovereign energy.

I do not choose sides. I choose self-honor, self-reliance, integrity, independence, inner authentic sovereignty, inner peace, and inner raw truth over obedience, compliance, complacency, codependency, subservience to parasitic people and their corrupt, hierarchical, exploitative, and soulless systems of governance.

I live with intention and purpose according to my inner alignment, authentic core values, my inherent soul’s pure essence, with the highest integrity and honor, regardless of what others try to project upon me.

I do not live by any societal cultural indoctrinated binding subservient shaming and guilt-tripping illusion, story, dogma, ideology, or paradigm.

I do not carry anyone’s burdens. I set unapologetic sacred boundaries with any entitled, delusional, obsessed, codependent, and insecure parasitic people.

I only connect with genuine, authentic, sovereign Souls.
