

How Hollow Systems Survive on Obedience and Self-Betrayal

by Pedro Lima

A petty, bitter, narcissistic, parasitic, hollow society curates deceptive, manipulative, speculative, and exploitative frameworks.

It crafts curated laws, norms, rules, and hierarchical dynamics where false authority figures dictate, control, lie, enforce, coerce, dominate and harvest others life-force for survival.

It sustains itself through false parasitic indoctrinated cultural stories.

Through fragmented, divisive narratives.

Through binding ideologies, dogmas, and paradigms designed to demand the herd compliance, and subservience.

This indoctrinated cultural maze of narcissistic parasitic social norms relies on shame, gaslighting and guilt-tripping for approval, belonging, and identity.

It strips individuals of their inner, authentic, sovereign truth and voice, demanding self-betrayal to appease and please the parasitic corrupt soulless establishment societal system.

Culture is weaponized as a tool of control.

As identity validation.

As a mechanism to undermine, disempower and diminish anyone who refuses to submit to the corrupt, soulless, hierarchical false authority figures.

A narcissist is a hollow petty and bitter parasite. It survives only through consent.

Through individuals who allow themselves to become dependent, obedient, compliant, subservient, and submissive to entitled, prideful, ignorant, and insecure curated false authority figures, and to their curated hollow exploitative systems that regulate approval, identity, worth, labor, and permission to exist.
