The Journey So Far

2004: Kaleo Baptist Church destroyed in a storm.

2005: Machinery sent from UK finally arrives and a building team trained.

2006: Building team and volunteers build a Sunday School then start digging the foundations for the new church building.

2007: Whilst building work continued, we bought and produced educational resources to be shipped to Ghana.

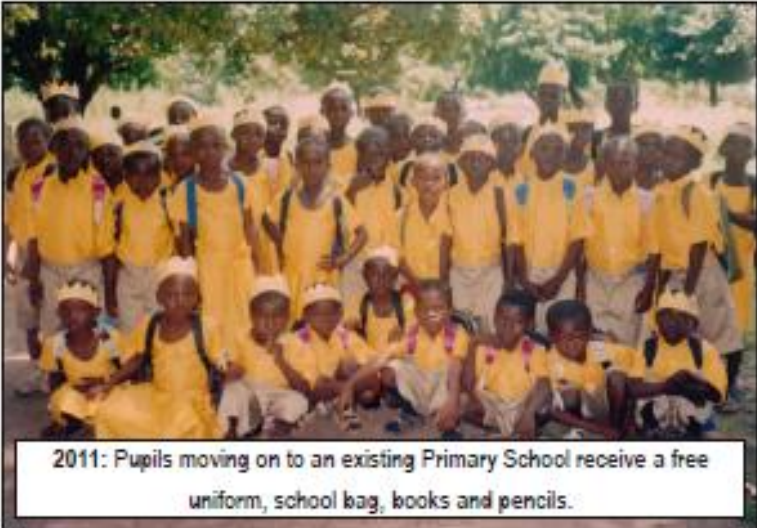

2008: The new Kaleo Baptist Church building is completed.

2009: First intake of 40 children admitted into Kindergarten 1. Sunday School used as classroom. 1 qualified teacher and 1 assistant employed.

2010: Another 40 children admitted into Kindergarten. Two more teaching assistants employed. A nourishing lunch for all every day.

2011: Pupils moving on to an existing Primary School receive a free uniform, school bag, books and pencils.

2012: The building team, along with volunteers from the church, start constructing the new Kindergarten building.

2013: The new Kindergarten building under construction.

2014: Kaleo Baptist Kindergarten is completed.

2014: Kaleo Baptist Primary School begins. As a temporary measure lessons are held on the veranda of the Kindergarten building.

2015: The first three Primary classrooms are completed. Primary 1 and 2 classrooms are occupied. The Ghana Education Service has given the Kindergarten an Outstanding report and use it as a Model School.
