HANDLING

Judge: Mrs Ro Cox

6-11 Years - three very promising young handlers who listened carefully to what I asked of them.

1st - Everlynn Stewart-Smith - Patterns were correct and handler showed a lovely rapport with her dog, some of her corners could have been a little sharper but shadowing was good and she showed a good awareness of the ring/dog and where the judge was - well deserved Best Junior Handler

2nd - Annie Brookes - Handling a strange dog who was looking for her owner so she had to work hard to keep the dogs attention - handler was confident in the ring and worked her patterns with purpose.

3rd - Logan Cupit - this handler was so good at encouraging his young dog and he had a good rapport with him - a little more work on perfecting his patterns will help the both of them going forward.

12-16 years

1st - Nora Brookes - another handling a dog that wasn't their own and she would have benefited from making her voice a bit more exciting to keep her dogs attention better, however she persisted and carried through her patterns with precision just could have been a little more smooth in her transitions when swapping hands which just gave the other handler the edge in the challenge for Best Junior Handler

17-24Years

1st - Katya Lynnyk-Ali - a confident handler of her large breed dog, they worked well together. the handler just needs to listen carefully to what the judge is asking her when it comes to the patterns and they'd make a stronger team together.

25+ Years

1st - Claire White - This experienced handler worked well with her dog and she kept the dogs attention throughout. Their patterns were correct but their cornering could have been a little neater and I'd have liked a more accurate up down with the dog being in the judges line of sight.
