Salah has Three Meanings

- 1. مىلة Silah connection
- دعاء . 2. Dua – invocation
- رحمة _{Rahmah} mercy

"Verily I am Allah; there is no God but Me: so worship [and obey] Me and establish the Prayer [properly] for My Remembrance." (Ta-Ha, 20:14-15)

The Importance and Status of Salah

- Tawheed. It is a confirmation and demonstration of how to apply Tawheed in our daily lives.
- Islamic Pillar. It is the second pillar of Islam. The denial of prayer removes one from the rank of Islam. "Verily, between a man and shirk and kufr is the abandonment of Salah." (Muslim)
- Direct Commandment. Unlike other obligations that were brought down on earth by angel Jibreel, prayer was directly ordered by Allah in the heavens to the Prophet on the night of Isra and Mi'raj.
- Best Deed. Prayer is the most virtuous of deeds. Once a man asked the Prophet about the most virtuous deed. The Prophet stated that the most virtuous deed is the prayer. The man asked again and again. The first three times, the Prophet again answered, "The prayer," then on the fourth occasion he stated, "Jihad in the way of Allah." (This is from a hadith recorded by Ahmad and ibn Hibban.)
- Accountability. Prayer is the first question that will be asked to every soul on the Day of Judgment. "The first matter that the slave will be brought to account for on the Day of Judgment is the prayer. If it is sound, then the rest of his deeds will be sound. And if it is bad, then the rest of his deeds will be bad." (Recorded by Al-Tabarani) "What landed you in As-Saqar (Hell)? They said: We were not of those who made salaah (almusalleen)..." (Al-Muddathir, 74:42-43)
- Universal Worship. Prayer is an act of worship that was made obligatory upon all the Prophets and for all people.
- Proponent of good. Prayer refines our moral character, purifies our niyyah (intentions), strengthens our eman and keeps us steadfast from evil temptations and desires.

Allah azza wa jal says:

"...be constant in upholding the Prayer, for indeed the Prayer restrains from immorality and evil..." (Al-Ankabut, 29:45)

"Verily, man was created impatient, irritable when evil touches him and niggardly when good touches him. Except for those devoted to prayer those who remain constant in their prayers..." (Al-Maarij, 70:19-23)

Conditions of Salah

The Preconditions of Salah

- 1. Must be a Muslim
- 2. Sound mind
- 3. Taharah: In a state of wudhu/ghusl
- 4. Cover the awrah so that the body is not defined and the colour of the skin is not visible
- 5. Age of maturity and understanding
- 6. Remove impurities: Purity of the body, clothes and place of Prayer
- 7. Pray at the appointed times
- 8. Face the Qiblah
- 9. Niyyah: Intention for that specific prayer

Taharah (Purification)

Minor Taharah: Wudhu (Ablution)

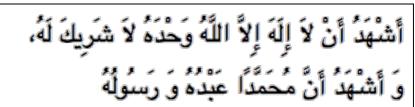

"O you who have believed, when you rise to [perform] prayer, wash your faces and your forearms to the elbows and wipe over your heads and wash your feet to the ankles..." (Al-Ma'idah, 5:6)

"Allah does not accept the Salah without purity." (Muslim)

Steps of the Wudhu¹

- 1. Intention (An-Niyyah) for that specific prayer. This is compulsory as the correct intention is essential for any deed to be accepted. The intention resides in the heart and should not be declared aloud.
- 2. Recite the Basmalah 'Bismillaah' (In the Name of Allah)
- 3. Wash both hands up to the wrists (starting with the right hand) three times; making sure that the water has reached between the fingers.
- 4. Rinse the mouth and sniff water into the nostrils three times. The mouth should be rinsed with a handful of water and then water should be sniffed into the nostrils with the right hand and expelled by the left. Rinsing the mouth with a handful of water and sniffing with the nose can be done at the same time (recommended).
- 5. Wash your whole face three times. (The whole face includes: the right ear to the left ear, and the forehead to the bottom of the chin).
- 6. Wash the right arm thoroughly from wrist to elbow three times, and make sure that no part of the arm has been left unwashed. Repeat with the left arm.
- 7. Move the palms of the wet hands lightly over the head (only once), starting from the top of the forehead to the back of the head, and passing both hands over the back of the head to the neck, and then bringing them back to the forehead.
- 8. With the same water, rub the grooves and holes of both ears with the wet index fingers, while also passing the wet thumbs behind the ears from the bottom upward. This should be done only once.
- 9. Finally, wash both feet to the ankles three times, starting with the right foot. Make sure that water has reached between the toes and covered the rest of the foot.
- 10. At the end of the above steps recite the supplication below:

I bear witness that none has the right to be worshiped but Allah alone, Who has no partner; and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His messenger.

'Ash-hadu 'an-laa 'ilaaha 'illallaahu wahdahu laa shareeka lahu wa 'ash-hadu 'anna Muhammadan 'abduhu wa Rasooluhu.

(Muslim)

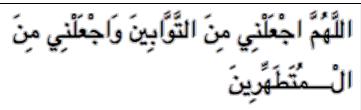

'Umar ibn al-Khattaab (RadhiAllaahu 'Anhu) said: Rasulullah said: "None of you makes wudoo and completes the wudoo then says:

'Ash-hadu 'an laa 'ilaaha 'illallaahu wahdahu laa shareeka lahu wa 'ash-hadu 'anna Muhammadan 'abduhu wa Rasooluhu. (I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped except Allah, and that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger.)

except that all eight Gates of Paradise are opened for him - so that he enters by whichever he pleases." (Reported by Muslim no.234)

 $^{^1\,}http://www.justgodoit.net/downloads/jgdi-prayer-guide.pdf$

O Allah, make me among those who turn to You in repentance, and make me among those who are purified.

Allaahummaj'alnee minat-tawwaabeena waj'alnee minal-mutatahhireen.

(At-Tirmithi)

Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) reports that the Messenger of Allah said:

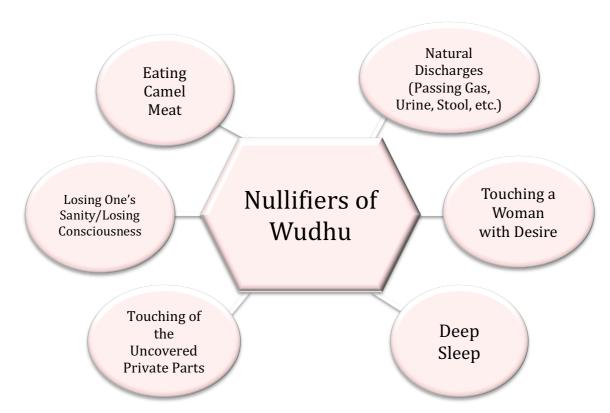

"When the Muslim (or 'Believing') servant makes wudhu and washes his face then the sin of everything he looked at with his eye comes away with the water, or with the last drop of the water, and when he washes his hands then the sin of everything he stretched out his hands to comes away with the water, or with the last drop of the water. And when he washes his feet every sin which his feet walked towards comes away with the water or with the last drop of the water - so that he leaves clean (clear/pure) from sins." (Reported by Muslim (1/148) and others)

Important Pointers

- It is recommended to do miswak before every prayer. Ai'shah (may Allah be pleased with her) reported that the Prophet said, 'The miswak purifies the mouth and is pleasing to the Lord.' (Ahmed, Nasai, Tirmidhi)
- Wiping over the socks: If you put on your socks in a state of taharah (i.e. when you have a valid wudhu), then you are not required to take them off at the time of renewing your wudhu. You can simply leave them on and wipe the top of each covered foot once with your wet hands. This can be done up to 24hrs for a resident, or for 3 days (72 hours) for a traveler from the time you first wiped over them.

Concerning al-Wudhu
It has ten	1) One mus	1) One must be 2) One		must be	3) 0	ne must be	4) Intention conditions:	Muslim	l	sa	ne	in	puberty	4) Intention
5) Accompanying its rulings by intending not to stop making Wudhu until purification is completed		6) Removing whatever makes Wudhoo obligatory
7) Cleaning the pri with either water of			ater that i ble to use	•		t water from
10) The time of Wudhu for those who constantly break it

It has six requirements:	Washing the hands up to the elbows	Wiping all of the head to the ears
1) Washing of the face which includes rinsing the mouth		5) Following the order of Wudhu
and inhaling water in the nose and blowing it out, its boundary is the hair to the chin and to the ears	4) Washing the feet to the ankles	6) Performing the steps of Wudhu in succession

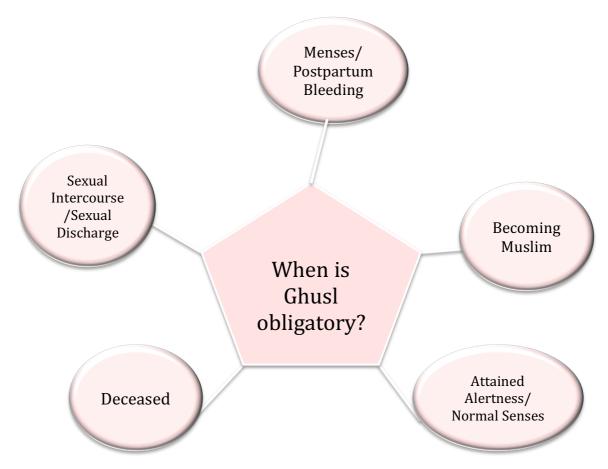

Nullifiers of Wudhu

- 1. Natural discharges: urine, stool, gas, etc.
- 2. Deep sleep
- 3. Unconsciousness of any kind
- 4. Losing sanity
- 5. Touching of the uncovered private parts
- 6. Eating camel meat
- 7. Washing of the deceased
- 8. Touching a woman with desire

Major Taharah: Ghusl (Ritual Bath)

"...And if you are in a state of janabah, then purify yourselves..." (Al-Ma'idah, 5:6)

Ghusl is the washing of the entire body with water.

Situations where it is Wajib (Obligatory) to Perform Ghusl

- 1. After janabah (sexual intercourse or sexual discharge for both men and women)
- 2. After the time of menstruation and postpartum bleeding
- 3. Ghusl must be done for the deceased before burial
- 4. At the acceptance of Islam
- 5. When one has regained alertness/normal senses after intoxication or madness.

Method of Ghusl

- 1. Make the intention for ghusl
- 2. Wash your hands up to the wrist
- 3. Wash your private parts properly three times with your left hand and then your hands
- 4. Recite the basmalah and perform wudhu as you do for salah (except the washing of the feet)
- 5. Wash your head three times
- 6. Thoroughly wash the right side of your body three times
- 7. Thoroughly wash the left side of your body three times
- 8. Wash your body completely once more to make sure that no area is left dry
- 9. Wash your feet up till the ankles three times making sure the water reaches in between the toes.

Tayyammum (Dry Ablution)

"...But if you are ill or on a journey or one of you comes from the place of relieving himself or you have contacted women and do not find water, then seek clean earth and wipe over your faces and hands with it. Allah does not intend to make difficulty for you, but He intends to purify you and complete His favor upon you that you may be grateful." (Al-Ma'idah, 5:6)

Tayammum is Permitted in Two Situations

- 1. When no water can be found
- 2. When one is not able to use water due to sickness, injury, etc.

And Tayammum can be performed as a substitute for both – Wudhu and Ghusl.

Method of Tayyammum

- 1. Make the niyyah in the heart
- 2. Begin with the basmalah
- 3. Strike palms of both hands on clean sand, dust or anything containing these, e.g. wall or stone etc. then blow into the palms. Pass the palms of both hands over the face once and then rub the back of your right hand with the left palm and the back of your left hand with the right palm (Bukhari and Muslim)
- 4. Finish with the same dua (invocation) as given at the end of Wudhu.

The Covering of the Awrah

"O children of Aadam wear your adornments to every masjid." (Al-'Araaf, 7:31)

- For men: From navel to the knees
- For women:
 - 1. The whole body should be covered except the face and the hands
 - 2. The tops of the feet should be covered
 - 3. The clothes should be loose, non-transparent and should have no human or animal images on them.

The clothes, garments, and the area of prayer should be pure from any impurities.

"And purify your garments." (Al-Muddathir, 74:4)

The Prayer Timings

"Verily, the prayer is enjoined on the believers at fixed hours." (An-Nisaa, 4:103)

"Establish the prayer from mid-day till the darkness of the night (i.e. Dhuhr, 'Asr, Maghrib and 'Ishaa), and recite the Qur'aan in the early dawn (i.e. Fajr). Verily, the recitation of the Our'aan in the early dawn is ever witnessed (by the angels)." (Al-Israa, 17:78)

'Ala' b. 'Abd al-Rahman reported that they came to the house of Anas b. Malik in Basra after saying the noon prayer. His (Anas) house was situated by the side of the mosque. He (Anas) said: Have you said the afternoon prayer? We said to him: It is just a few minutes before that we finished the noon prayer. He said: offer the afternoon prayer. So we stood up and said our prayer. And when we completed it, he said: I have heard the Messenger of Allah saying: This is how the hypocrite prays: he sits watching the sun, and when it is between the horns of devil, he rises and strikes the ground four times (in haste) mentioning Allah a little during it. (Muslim, Book #004, Hadith #1301)

The Messenger of Allah said: The time of the noon prayer is when the sun passes the meridian and a man's shadow is the same (length) as his height, (and it lasts) as long as the time for the afternoon prayer has not come; the time for the afternoon prayer is as long as the sun has not become pale; the time of the evening prayer is as long as the twilight has not ended; the time of the night prayer is up to the middle of the average night and the time of the morning prayer is from the appearance of dawn, as long as the sun has not risen; but when the sun rises, refrain from prayer for it rises between the horns of the devil. (Muslim, 1275)

Facing the Qiblah

'...when you stand for prayer, perform ablution perfectly, then face the Qiblah and say Takbeer." (Bukhari)

"Verily, We have seen the turning of your face (O Muhammad) towards the heaven. Surely, We shall turn you to a Qiblah (proper direction) that will please you. So turn your face to the direction of Al-Masjid-ul-Haraam." (Al-Bagarah, 2:144)

The Nivyah

The niyyah (the intention) should be in the heart and should not be uttered aloud.

"Verily actions are based on intentions, and verily every man will have what he intends." (Al Bukhari and Muslim)

The Sutrah

Important Issues to Keep in Mind Regarding the Sutrah²

- The Sutrah can be any object in front of the person who is praying such as a wall, stick, pillar. There is no limit to its width, but it must be at least a hand span in height.
- The space from the feet to the Sutrah should be about 3 arm-spans so that there is sufficient room for Sajdah.
- The Sutrah is legislated for the obligatory as well as the optional prayers.
- The Sutrah of the Imaam is the Sutrah of the people praying behind him (hence, this case only applies in the congregational prayer)

 $^{^{\}rm 2}$ More than 1000 Sunan Every Day & Night by Shaykh Khaalid Al-Husaynaan

- When someone passes in front of a praying person (who doesn't have a sutrah), it cuts or reduces the value of the prayer.
- If someone tries to pass between the one praying and his Sutrah, then the praying person should stop the person from doing so.

The Prophet said: "When any one of you prays facing an object that he is using to screen him from the people, and someone wants to pass in front of him, let him push him away, and if he insists let him fight him, for he is no more than a devil." (Narrated by Al-Bukhari, al-Salaah, 509; Muslim, al-Salaah, 505)

• The Sutrah protects the eyes from wandering and helps the person focus his sight to the area before his Sutrah. Hence, it helps him to attain khushoo in salah.

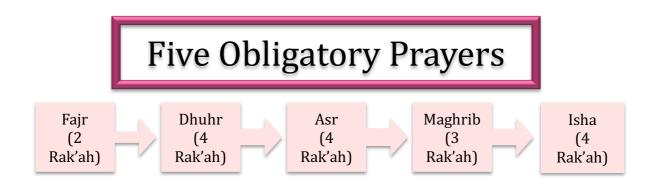

The Messenger of Allah said: If the one who passes in front of the praying person knew how serious a sin it was for him to do so it would have been better for him to wait for forty than walk in front of him. (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)

Ways to Attain Khushoo Before the Prayer

- Repeat the words of the adhan after the muezzin
- To recite the dua that should be recited immediately after the adhan
- Recite the dua between the adhan and Iqaamah
- Prepare perfectly for the Prayer (one's wudhu', place of prayer, garments, pray on time etc.).
- Keep away from all distractions such as: Do not pray when the food is ready and you want to eat, or when you feel the need to answer the call of nature, or when you feel sleepy, or where there is too much noise. Make sure there are no images/pictures of humans or animals.

Establishing the Prayer

"Pray as you have seen me pray." (Al-Bukhari)

Sunan Al-Rawaatib Before Fardh	Fardh	Sunan Al-Rawaatib After Fardh
2	Fajr	-
4 (Pray in Units of 2)	Dhuhr	2
-	Asr	-
-	Maghrib	2
-	Isha	2

I heard the Messenger of Allah saying: "A house will be built in Jannah for every Muslim who offers twelve Rak`ah of optional Salaah other than the obligatory Salaah in a day and a night (to seek the Pleasure of Allah)." (Muslim)

Some of the Voluntary Prayers

Voluntary Prayer	Virtue
Four Rakah before Asr	Ibn `Umar (R) reported: The Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said, "May Allah have mercy on a man who performs four Rak`ah before the `Asr prayer." [Abu Dawud and At-Tirmidhi].
Two Rak'ah after Ablution (Wudhu)	Abu Hurairah (R) reported: The Messenger of Allah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said to Bilal (R) "Tell me about the most hopeful act (i.e., one which you deem the most rewarding with Allah) you have done since your acceptance of Islam because I heard the sound of the steps of your shoes in front of me in Jannah." Bilal said: "I do not consider any act more hopeful than that whenever I make Wudu' (or Ghusul) in an hour of night or day, I would immediately perform Salah for as long as was destined for me to perform."
Waiting in the Masjid until the sun rises and then offering Salat-ul- Duha	[Al-Bukhari and Muslim]. It is reported on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: (R) that the Messenger of Allah said: 'Whoever prays the morning prayer in congregation then sits remembering Allah until the sun rises, then prays two units of prayer has the reward like that of Hajj and `Umrah.'" The Messenger of Allah (May Allah's Peace and Blessings be upon him) said: 'Completely, completely, completely'
	Recorded by Al-Tirmidhi. Hasan Gharib.
Duha Prayer	Abu Dharr (May Allah be pleased with him)reported: The Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said, "In the morning, charity is due on every joint bone of the body of everyone of you. Every utterance of Allah's Glorification (Subhan Allah) is an act of charity, and every utterance of His Praise (Al-hamdu lillah) is an act of charity and every utterance of declaration of His Greatness (La ilaha illAllah) is an act of charity; and enjoining M'aruf is an act of charity, and forbidding Munkar is an act of charity, and two Rak'ah Duha prayers which one performs in the forenoon is equal to all this (in reward)."
	[Muslim]
Qiyaam al lail	"And in some parts of the night (also) perform the Salat (prayer) with it (i.e., recite the Qur'an in the prayer) as an additional prayer (Tahajjud optional prayer - Nawafil) for you (O Muhammad (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam)). It may be that your Rubb will raise you to Maqam Mahmud (a station of praise and glory, i.e., the honour of intercession on the Day of Resurrection)." (17:79)
Witr prayer	He (PBUH) said, "Allah is Witr (single, odd) and loves what is Witr. So perform Witr prayer. O followers of Qur'an, observe Witr (prayer)."
	[At-Tirmidhi and Abu Dawud].

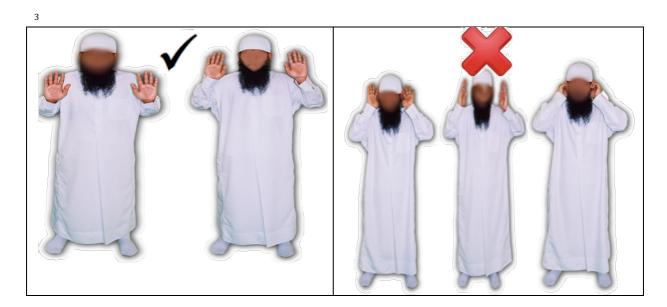

Step-by-Step Guide on How to Pray with Humility

"Successful indeed are the believers. Those who offer their prayers with humility and attentiveness (khushoo')." (Al-Mu'minun, 23:1-2)

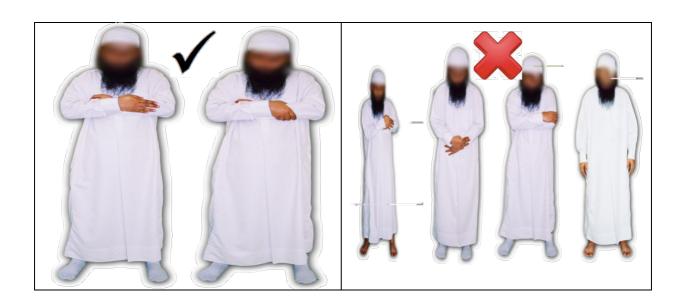

Qiyaam: Standing

- The Opening Takbeer (Takbeeratul Ihraam)
 - o Position: Raise both your hands to the level of the shoulders or the ear lobes (palms should face the Qiblah).
 - o Supplication: Allahu Akbar
 - o Placement of hands: right hand over left hand
 - o Look at the place of prostration

The Prophet said, "What is wrong with those people who look towards the sky during the prayer?" His talk grew stern while delivering this speech and he said, "They should stop (looking towards the sky during the prayer); otherwise their eye-sight would be taken away." (Bukhari, V1, 717)

Surah Al-Fatiha

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. All praise and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of existence – the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful, Master of the Day of Judgment. You (alone) we worship, and You (alone) we ask for help. Guide us to the straight path – Guide us to the straight path. The way of those on whom You have granted Your grace, not (the way) of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray.

o If it is the 1st or 2nd Rak'ah (unit of prayer) then recite another surah after Suratul Fatihah. Whereas if it is the 3rd of the 4th, then only recite Surah Al-Fatihah.

Abu Hurayrah (May Allah be pleased with him) narrated that the Prophet 🛎 said:

"Allah the exalted said, 'I have divided the prayer (Al-Fatihah) into two halves between Me and My servant. A half of it is for Me and a half for My servant, and My servant shall acquire what he asked for.

If he says, 'All praise and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of existence',

Allah says, 'My servant has praised Me.'

When the servant says, 'The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.'

Allah says, 'My servant has extolled Me.'
When he says, 'Master of the Day of Judgment.'

Allah says, 'My servant has glorified Me.'

When he says, 'You (alone) we worship, and You (alone) we ask for help.'

Allah says, 'This is between Me and My servant, and My servant shall acquire what he sought.'

When he says, 'Guide us to the straight path. The way of those on whom You have granted Your grace, not (the way) of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray,' Allah says, 'This is for My servant, and My servant shall acquire what he asked for."

Ruku' (Bowing)

"And bow down with those who bow down." (Al-Bagarah, 2:43)

The Messenger of Allah once said: 'The worst thief amongst men is the one who steals from his prayer. They said: 'O messenger of Allah, how does he steal from his prayer?' He said, 'he does not complete his ruku' and sujood.' (Tabaraani and Hakim)

- Raise your hands to the level of your shoulders or earlobes (as done earlier) and say the Tabkeer (Allahu Akbar) while going down in ruku' position
- In the ruku' position, grab your knees firmly with your hands, spread your fingers, stick out your elbows, and straighten your back horizontally to the ground.
- Recite the supplication

Falling in Sujood (Prostration)

Touch the ground with the hands first and then the knees while saying the takbeer.

• Sajdah Position

- Make sure these body parts are touching the floor in the sujood position the forehead along with the tip of the nose, both hands, both knees, the toes of both feet, and make sure that your belly is away from your thighs.
- O The 2 hands should point to the Qiblah with the fingers close to one another
- o The forehead and the nose should be firmly placed on the ground
- o The toes should point towards the Qiblah
- The feet should touch each other
- o Your arms and elbows should be away from the ground
- o The Prophet said: "If any of you prostrates (sajdah) then keep straight and not spread his arms like the sitting of a dog." (Muslim)

Don't resemble the four animals during prayer!

- 1. The Dog: Don't prostrate like a dog
- 2. The Camel: Don't fall in ruku' like a camel (different opinions)
- 3. The Fox: Don't look around during prayer like a fox
- 4. The Rooster: Don't peck in ruku' and sujood like a rooster

The Messenger of Allah once said: "The worst thief amongst men is the one who steals from his prayer. They said: 'O messenger of Allah, how does he steal from his prayer?' He said, 'he does not complete his ruku' and sujood." (Tabaraani and Hakim)

Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) narrated that Allah's Messenger , said: "The nearest a slave can be to his Lord is when he is prostrating, so invoke (supplicate) Allah much in it." (Muslim, Abu Dawud, An-Nasa'i and others, Sahih al-Jami #1175)

Invocations During Sujood

(Muslim)

O Allah, I seek protection in Your pleasure from Your anger, and I seek protection in Your forgiveness from Your punishment. I seek protection in You from You. I cannot count Your praises. You are as You have praised Yourself.

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِرِضَاكَ مِنْ سَخَطِكَ، وَ بِمُعَافَاتِكَ مِنْكَ، لاَ بِمُعَافَاتِكَ مِنْ عُقُوبَتك وَ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْك، لاَ أَحْصبي ثَنَاءً عَلَيْكَ أَنْتَ كَمَا أَثْنَيْتَ عَلَى نَفْسك

Sitting Between the Two Sajdah

- While rising from the first sajdah, say Allahu Akbar.
- Then sit (rest yourself) on your left leg while keeping your right foot upright with its toes facing the Qiblah. Put your hands on your knees.
- Supplication

Invocations for Sitting Between Two Prostrations

(Abu Dawud, Ibn Majah, At-Tirmithi)

• Perform another sajdah in the similar manner, and rise for the second unit of prayer and perform it in the way mentioned earlier.

When Getting Up for Another Rak'ah

- Say "Allahu Akbar"
- Sit for a while
- Use fists to get up

Narrated Ayyub: Abu Qilaba said, "Malik bin Huwairith came to us and led us in the prayer in this mosque of ours and said, 'I lead you in prayer but I do not want to offer the prayer but just to show you how Allah's Apostle performed his prayers." I asked Abu Qilaba, "How was the prayer of Malik bin Huwairith?" He replied, "Like the prayer of this Sheikh of ours—i.e. Amr bin Salima." That Sheikh used to pronounce the Takbir perfectly and when he raised his head from the second prostration he would sit for a while and then support himself on the ground and get up. (Bukhari, V1, 787)

Note: When getting up for the third rak'ah, raise your hands to the level of the shoulders or ear lobes.

Tashahhud

First Tashahhud

- In the second unit of prayer, sit (rest yourself) on your left leg while keeping your right foot upright with its toes facing the Qiblah. Put your hands on your knees. This type of sitting is known as muftarishan.
- O Hand placement: Grab the left knee with your left hand, and place the right hand on the right knee. Make your middle finger and thumb of the right hand touch one another and form a circle, while pointing the index finger in the direction of the Qiblah, and move it while saying the supplications.
- During the tashahhud, look at the index finger (instead of the place of prostration).

Invocation for At-Tashahhud

All greetings of humility are for Allah,	التَّحِيَّاتُ لِلَّهِ Attahiyyaatu lillaahi
And all prayers,	وَ الصلُّواتُ
	wassalawaatu
And goodness.	و الطّيبات wattayyibaatu
Peace be upon you,	السَّلاَمُ عَلَيْكَ

Peace be upon us	السَّلاَمُ عَلَيْنَا
	assalaamu 'alaynaa
And upon the righteous slaves of Allah.	وَ عَلَى عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِ حِينَ
	wa 'alaa 'ibaadillaahis-saaliheen
I bear witness that there is none worthy of worship but Allah,	أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهُ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ
	'Ash-hadu 'an laa 'ilaaha 'illallaahu
And I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His	وَ أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً عَبْدُهُ وَ رَسُولُهُ
Messenger.	wa 'ash-hadu 'anna Muhammadan 'abduhu wa Rasooluhu

(Al-Bukhari, Muslim)

• Final Tashahhud

- At the end of the final Rak'ah of any prayer, recite the final tashahhud, which includes the tashahhud mentioned above along with the supplication mentioned on the next page.
- Sitting position: At the final Rak'ah of every prayer, one should sit mutawarrikan. In this position, you will need to rest on your left thigh, your left leg under your right, while keeping your right foot upright. Look at the index finger and move it while saying the supplications till the tasleem.

 This type of sitting position is done in which the units of prayer are more than two. So for the Fajr prayer and the sunnah prayers (which are prayed in two units), one should sit as they did in the first tashahhud (muftarishan).

He knows what happens to them in this world, and what will happen to them in the Hereafter. And they will never compass anything of His Knowledge except that which He wills. The Witr Prayer

Witr prayer is one of the greatest acts of worship that draws one closer to Allah. It is one of the confirmed Sunnahs (Sunnah mu'akkadah), which the Muslim should observe regularly and not neglect.

Narrated Abu Hurairah: My friend (the Prophet advised me to do three things and I shall not leave them till I die, these are: To fast three days every month, to offer the Duha prayer, and to offer Witr before sleeping. (Volume 2, Book 21, Number 274)

The Proof that Witr is Not Obligatory

The fact that it is not obligatory is indicated by the Hadith narrated by al-Bukhaari (1891) and Muslim (11) from Talhah ibn 'Ubayd-Allaah (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: A man came to the Messenger of Allah and said: "O Messenger of Allah, what prayers has Allah enjoined on me?" He said: "The five prayers, unless you do anything voluntarily." The version narrated by Muslim says: "Five prayers every day and night." He said: "Do I have to do anything else?' He said, "No, unless you do it voluntarily."

Al-Nawawi said: This indicates that Witr prayer is not obligatory.

Al-Haafiz said in al-Fath: This indicates that no prayers during the day and night are obligatory apart from the five prayers; this is contrary to the view of those who say that Witr or the two Sunnah rak'ahs of Fajr are obligatory.

Witr was a regular practice of the Prophet : Muslim (754) narrated from Abu Sa'eed (may Allah be pleased with him) that the Prophet said: "Perform Witr before morning comes."

Abu Dawood (1416) narrated that 'Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) said: The Messenger of Allah said: "O people of the Qur'an, pray Witr, for Allah is One and loves that which is odd-numbered." (Classed as Saheeh by al-Albaani in Saheeh Abi Dawood)

Hence we should continue to offer Witr prayer regularly, whether travelling or not, as the Prophet used to do. Al-Bukhaari (1000) and Muslim (700) narrated that Ibn 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) said: The Prophet was on a journey, atop his mount, whichever direction it was facing, gesturing the motions of the night prayer, except the obligatory prayer, and he prayed Witr atop his mount."

We may sum up the manner of offering Witr prayer as follows:

Its Timing

It starts when a person has prayed Isha and lasts until dawn begins, because the Prophet said: "Allah has prescribed for you a prayer (by which He may increase your reward), which is Witr; Allah has enjoined it for you during the time between Isha prayer until dawn begins." (Narrated by al-Tirmidhi, 425; classed as Saheeh by al-Albaani in Saheeh al-Tirmidhi)

Is it Better to Offer this Prayer at the Beginning of its Time or to Delay it?

The Sunnah indicates that if a person thinks he will be able to get up at the end of the night, it is better to delay it, because prayer at the end of the night is better and is witnessed (by the angels). But whoever fears that he will not get up at the end of the night should pray Witr before he goes to sleep, because of the Hadith of Jaabir (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: The Messenger of Allah said: "Whoever fears that he will not get up at the end of the night, let him pray Witr at the beginning of the night, but whoever thinks that he will be able to get up at the end of the night, let him pray Witr at the end of the night, for prayer at the end of the night is witnessed (by the angels) and that is better." (Narrated by Muslim, 755)

Al-Nawawi said: This is the correct view. Other Ahadeeth which speak of this topic in general terms are to be interpreted in the light of this sound, specific, and clear report, such as the Hadith, "My close friend advised me not to sleep without having prayed Witr." This is to be understood as referring to one who is not sure that he will be able to wake up (to pray Witr at the end of the night). (Sharh Muslim, 3/277)

The Number of Rak'ahs

The minimum number of rak'ahs for Witr is one rak'ah, because the Prophet said: "Witr is one rak'ah at the end of the night." (Narrated by Muslim, 752) And he said: "The night prayers are two (rak'ahs) by two, but if one of you fears that dawn is about to break, let him pray one rak'ah to make what he has prayed odd-numbered." (Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 911; Muslim, 749) If a person limits himself to praying one rak'ah, then he has performed the Sunnah. But Witr may also be three or five or seven or nine.

If a person prays three rak'ahs of Witr this may be done in two ways, both of which are prescribed in sharee'ah:

- 1. To pray the 3 units continuously with one tashahhud at the end. 'Aa'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) who said: The Prophet used not to say the tasleem in the (first) two rak'ahs of Witr. According to another version: "He used to pray Witr with three rak'ahs and he did not sit except in the last of them." (Narrated by al-Nasaa'i, 3/234; al-Bayhaqi, 3/31. al-Nawawi said in al-Majmoo' (4/7): it was narrated by al-Nasaa'i with a hasan isnaad, and by al-Bayhaqi with a saheeh isnaad)
- 2. To say the tasleem (salam) after the 2 units, and then pray another unit and end with tasleem. A report narrated by Ibn 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) said that he used to separate the two rak'ahs from the single rak'ah with a tasleem, and he said that the Prophet used to do that. (Narrated by Ibn Hibbaan (2435); Ibn Hajar said in al-Fath (2/482): its isnaad is qawiy (strong))

But if he prays Witr with five or seven rak'ahs, then they should be continuous, and he should only recite one tashahhud in the last of them and say the tasleem, because of the report narrated by 'Aa'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) who said: The Messenger of Allah used to pray thirteen rak'ahs at night, praying five rak'ahs of Witr, in which he would not sit except in the last rak'ah. (Narrated by Muslim, 737)

And it was narrated that Umm Salamah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: The Prophet used to pray Witr with five or seven (rak'ahs) and he did not separate between them with any salaam or words. (Narrated by Ahmad, 6/290; al-Nasaa'i, 1714. al-Nawawi said: Its isnaad is jayyid. Al-Fath al-Rabbaani, 2/297. and it was classed as Saheeh by al-Albaani in Saheeh al-Nasaa'i)

If he prays Witr with nine rak'ahs, then they should be continuous and he should sit to recite the tashahhud in the eighth rak'ah, then stand up and not say the tasleem, then he should recite the tashahhud in the ninth rak'ah and then say the tasleem. It was narrated in Muslim (746) from 'Aa'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) that the Prophet used to pray nine rak'ahs in which he did not sit except in the eighth, when he would remember Allah, praise Him and call upon Him, then he would get up and not say the tasleem, and he would stand up and pray the ninth (rak'ah), then he would sit and remember Allah and praise Him and call upon Him, then he would say a tasleem that we could hear. If he prayed Witr with eleven rak'ahs, he would say the tasleem after each two rak'ahs, then pray one rak'ah at the end.

All these ways of offering Witr prayer have been mentioned in the Sunnah, but the best way is not to stick to one particular way; rather one should do it one way one time and another way another time, so that one will have done all the Sunnahs.

The Proof that Witr Should not be Like the Maghrib Salah

The Prophet did not pray the Witr prayer like Maghrib (with two tashahhuds and one salaam). Rather he forbade us from doing that, and said: "Do not pray Witr with three rak'ahs like Maghrib." (Narrated by al-Haakim, 1/403; al-Bayhaqi, 3/31; al-Daaraqutni, p. 172. Al-Haafiz ibn Hajar said in Fath al-Baari (4/301): Its isnaad fulfils the conditions of the two Shaykhs (al-Bukhaari and Muslim))

The Surahs to be Recited in Witr

In the first rak'ah one should recite Sabbih isma rabbika al-'a'la ("Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High" – Surah al-A'la (87). In the second one should recite Surah al-Kaafirun (109), and in the third Surah al-Ikhlaas (112).

Al-Nasaa'i (1729) narrated that Ubayy ibn Ka'b said: The Messenger of Allah used to recite in Witr: Sabbihisma rabbika al-'a'la ("Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High" – Surah al-A'la (87)), Qul yaa ayyuha'l-kaafiroon ("Say: O disbeliever..." – Surah al-Kaafirun (109)), and Qul Huwa Allaahu ahad ("Say: He is Allaah, the One" – Surah al-Ikhlaas (112)). (Classed as Saheeh by al-Albaani in Saheeh al-Nasaa'i)

When to Recite Qunoot in the Witr Prayer

Du'aa al-Qunoot is a special supplication recited in the last rak'ah of the Witr prayer that is recited in the last rak'ah of Witr prayer, after bowing, but if one recites it before bowing it doesn't matter. But reciting it after bowing is better. (Majmoo' al-Fataawa (23/100))

Most of the Ahadith and the opinion of most of the scholars state that Qunoot comes after ruku', but if you say Qunoot before ruku' that is acceptable. So you have the choice of doing ruku' when you have finished reciting Qur'an, then standing up and saying "Rabbana wa laka al-hamd" then saying Qunoot...or saying Qunoot when you have finished reciting Qur'an, then saying "Allaahu akbar" and bowing. Both of these were narrated in the Sunnah. (Shaykh Muhammad ibn 'Uthaymeen (may Allah have mercy on him), al-Sharh al-Mumti', 4/64)

Raising the Hands while Reading Du'aa Qunoot

Raising the hands is mentioned in a Saheeh report from 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him), as was narrated by al-Bayhaqi in a report which he classed as Saheeh (2/210). The worshipper should raise his hands to chest height and no more, because this du'aa is not a du'aa of supplication in which a person needs to raise his hands high. Rather it is a du'aa of hope in which a person holds out his palms towards heaven... The apparent meaning of the scholar's words is that the worshipper should hold his hands close together like a beggar who asks someone else to give him something.

It is better not to recite qunoot in Witr all the time, rather it should be done sometimes, because there is no evidence that the Messenger of Allah did it all the time. But he taught al-Hasan ibn 'Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) a du'aa to recite in qunoot al-Witr, as will be quoted below.

The Du'aa of Qunoot4

The du'aa of qunoot was narrated by Abu Dawood (1425), al-Tirmidhi (464), and al-Nasaa'i (1746) from al-Hasan ibn 'Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: The Messenger of Allaah taught me some words to say in qunoot al-Witr:

Then he should send blessings upon the Prophet (Al-Sharh al-Mumti' by Ibn 'Uthaymeen (4/14-52))

Du'aa al-Qunoot in Fajr Prayer

With regard to saying Du'aa al-Qunoot in Fajr prayer all the time, in all circumstances, there is no saheeh report that the Prophet singled out Fajr for Qunoot, or that he always recited it in Fajr prayer. Rather what is proven is that he said Du'aa al-Qunoot at times of calamity with words that were appropriate to the situation.

The Rightly-Guided khaleefahs after him followed the same practice. It is better for the imam to limit Qunoot to times of calamity, following the example of the Messenger of Allah as it was proven that Abu Maalik al-Ash'ari said: "I said to my father, 'O my father, you prayed behind the Messenger of Allah and behind Abu Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthmaan and 'Ali (may Allah be pleased with them). Did they used to say Du'aa al-Qunoot in Fajr?' He said, 'O my son, this is a newly-invented matter." (Narrated by the five, apart from Abu Dawood; classed as saheeh by al-Albaani in al-Irwa', 435). The best of guidance is the guidance of Muhammad.

Supplication Immediately Following the Witr Prayer

It is mustahabb to say after the tasleem:

Subhaanal-Malik al-Quddoos.

Recite three times. Raise and extend the voice on the third time and say:

Rabbil-Malaa'ikati war-Rooh.

"Lord of the angels and the Spirit." (An-Nasa'i 3/244, Ad-Daraqutni and others. Compiled in Fortress of the Muslim, pg. 10)

The Pillars, Obligations, and Sunnah Acts of the Prayer

There are Fourteen Pillars of the Prayer
1) Standing for the one who can do so	2) Saying the Takbeer that starts the Prayer		3) Recitation of the Faatihah
4) Bowing	5) Coming up from bowing		6) Prostrating on all seven limbs
7) Standing upright after bowing	8) Sitting in between the two prostrations		9) Observing tranquility in all of these pillars
10) Following the order of Prayer	11) Reciting the final Tashahhud		12) Sitting while reciting it
13) Sending prayers upon the Prophet # 14) Giving the Salaams to the right and the l			Salaams to the right and the left

There are Eight Obligations of Prayer
1) Saying "Allahu Akbar" (Allah is Great) in	2) Saying; "Subhaana Rabbil-'Atheem"
every action of prayer other than the first one	(Glorified is My Lord the Mighty) while bowing
3) Saying; "Samia' Allahu liMan Hamidah"	4) Saying; "Rabbnaa wa Lakal-Hamd" (Our (Allah hears him who praises Him) whether it	Lord to You is all Praise) is the Imam or the one praying alone
5) Saying; "Subhaana Rabbil-'Alaa" (Glorified	6) Saying; "Rabbee Ighfirlee" (My Lord, is my Lord the Most High) while in prostration	Forgive me) in the two prostrations
7) Reciting the First Tashahhud 8) Sitting while reciting it

Note: The rest of the actions are considered the Sunnah acts of prayer.

Sujuud as Sahw (Prostrations of Forgetfulness)⁵

1. Additions: Of the Same Kind as Found in Salaah

1. Additions: Of the same Kina as Found in Salaan
Causes of Sujuud as Sahw	If One Remembers	What To Do	Do Sujuud
a. Additions in Actions	During the addition	 Stop doing this addition Continue and finish salaah Must do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
Examples: • Extra rakaa	Soon after tasleem	• Must do sujuud as sahw	After tasleem
• Extra sujuud	 After long time Example: 30 minutes	Salaah is invalid
	During the addition	 Stop doing this addition Continue and finish salaah Must do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
Another Example of Addition in Action: • Tasleem before end of salaah	• Soon after this tasleem	 Go back to sitting position Stand up to do missing rakaa Do tashahhud and tasleem Must do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
	 After long time Example: 30 minutes	Salaah is invalid
b. Additions in Sayings	Soon after tasleem	• Sunnah to do sujuud as sahw	After tasleem
Example: • "Subhaana Rabbiyal 'adheem" said in sujuud	After long timeExample: 30 minutes	Nothing upon him

2. Omissions in Salaah: ركن – Rukn (Pillar), واجب – Wajib (Obligation), and Sunnah

2. Omissions in Suludii.	Rakii (Tillar),	• Wajib (Obligation), an	ra Barrian
Causes of Sujuud as Sahw	If One Remembers	What To Do	Do Sujuud
a. Omissions of Rukn (Pillar) Some examples:	Before reaching the place of the missing rukn in the next rakat	 Return and do this missing rukn Build on this to complete salaah Must do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
Omission of al Fatiha Omission of rukuu Omission of standing fully erect after doing rukuu	• After reaching the place of the missing rukn in the next rakat	 Rakaa with missed rukn is cancelled and present rakaa replaces it Build on this to complete salaah Must do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem

 $^{^{5}}$ www.understand-islam.net

	After tasleemAnd omission is in last rakaa	 Return and do this missing rukn Complete the rakaa Make tashahud and tasleem Must do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
	After tasleem And omission is not in last rakaa	Do a complete rakaa and tasleemMust do sujuud as sahw	After tasleem
	 After a long time Example: 30 minutes	• Salaah is invalid
	When having determination to move but did not move yet	 Return to do missing obligation (In this example it is tashahhud) Continue and finish salaah 	No
b. Omissions of Wajib (Obligation)Example:Omitting the first tashahhud	When starting to move but did not finish to stand fully yet	 Return to do missing obligation (In this example it is tashahhud) Continue and finish salaah Do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
	After finishing to stand up correctly	 Return is forbidden Continue and finish salaah Do sujuud as sahw 	Before tasleem
c. Omissions in Sunnah • Saying or action	Before the tasleem	• Recommended only if this omitted Sunnah is a usual habit of this person	Before tasleem

Rukn and Wajib - Pillar and Obligation

- ullet Commonality ullet deliberate omission of either one invalidates salaah
- Difference → omitted rukn must be made up—omitted wajib is compensated by sujuud as sahw

3. Doubt - Ash Shakk: Wavering Between Two Matters Such That None has Distinction Over the Other

Causes of Sujuud as Sahw	If One Remembers	What To Do	Do Sujuud
a. Without Preponderance • Example: He doubts if he is in 3 rd or in 4 th rakaa of a 4 rakaat salaah	• During salaah.	 Build up on certainty, i.e. the least, and in this example it is the 3rd rakaa Do the 4th rakaa and do tashahud Do sujuud as sahw 	Before tasleem

b. With Preponderance -	During salaah and There is preponderation this is the 3 rd rakaa	 Build up on the preponderation this is the 3rd rakaa Do the 4th rakaa and do tashahud Do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem
(Dhan) • Example: Doubt if he is in 3 rd or 4 th rakaa or a 4 rakaat salaah	During salaah and There is preponderation this is the 4th rakaa	 Build up on the preponderation this is the 4th rakaa Finish salaah Do sujuud as sahw 	After tasleem

Doubt is not to be considered in three situations:

- 1. When the doubts are frequent and due to whispering (waswas)
- 2. When it is a thought that came on the mind, delusion (wahm)
- 3. When the doubt arises after the execution of the worship, unless there is certainty (yaqeen)

In principle, the salaah is complete because it was performed by a sane, fitting, legally responsible person, and it is so unless the person is certain it was not complete and in this case, he returns to what is certain.

4. Different Situations: Dropping of Sujuud As Sahw or Repetition of Forgetfulness—and Other Cases Where There is No Sujuud as Sahw

Situations	Cases	What To Do	Do Sujuud
	1. If he remembers long time after tasleemExample: 30 minutes2. If he nullifies his wudhu after salaah	• Time is long > obligation drops	No
a. Dropping of Sujuud as	3. If he begins doing another salaahTwo situations depending on the	 Time is short → he may return to the first salaah He does sujuud as 	Either before or after tasleem in the 1st salaah
Sahw	length of time between the two	sahw • Then he continues the	or salaat	2 nd salaah • He does sujuud as sahw	After tasleem in the 2 nd salaah
		 Obligation drops 	No
	4. If he leaves the mosque	 Obligation remains Imaam Ahmad⁶ Shaykh Ibn Taymiyah⁷ 	See footnotes
b. Repetition of Forgetfulness in the Same Salaah	In the same salaah, there are many mistakes requiring sujuud as sahw	 Preponderating opinion → one instance of sujuud as sahw 	Either before or after tasleem

⁶ One narration by Imaam Ahmad saying he does the sujuud as sahw whether the separation was long or short

 $^{^{7}}$ One opinion by Shaykh Ibn Taymiyah saying the sujuud as sahw continues even after a long separation

A mistake requiring sujuud as sahw before tasleem and	 First opinion → one instance of sujuud as sahw 	Before tasleem ⁸
Also a mistake requiring sujuud as sahw after tasleem	 A strong opinion → two instances of sujuud as sahw 	Before and also after tasleem

Sujuud as Sahw is not applicable in the following situations:

- Funeral prayer (janazah)
- Sujuud of thankfulness
- Sujuud of recitation
- Compensation for sujuud as sahw

5. Ma-muum (follower), Masbuug (one joining late), Imaam, and Other Situations

Situations	Wasbuuq (one joining late), Imaam, ana Other Sitt. What To Do	Do Sujuud
1.	WHAT IO DO	שט Sujuuu
 a. The Ma-muum: He begins salaah with imaam And imaam makes a mistake 	• He follows the imaam	Follows imaam
1.b. The Ma-muum:He begins salaah with imaamAnd he makes a mistake	• Imaam bears this for him
a. The MasbuuqHe joins imaam late in salaahAnd he makes a mistake	If his own mistake is after he departed from imaam • He completes his salaah • He does sujuud as sahw	Either after or before his own tasleem
	He follows imaam in sujuud as sahwThen he completes his salaah	Follows imaam
 2. b. The Masbuuq He joins imaam late in salaah And imaam does sujuud 	If he did not stand up fully before imaam makes sujuud as sahw • He must return and do sujuud as sahw with the imaam • Them he completes his salaah	Follows imaam
as sahw before tasleem	If he is standing up fully before imaam makes sujuud as sahw • He completes his salaah and he does sujuud as sahw	After his own tasleem
2.	If he did not meet the imaam in his mistake • He completes his salaah
c. The MasbuuqHe joins imaam late in salaah	If he MET the imaam in his mistake • He completes his salaah and he does sujuud as sahw	After his own tasleem
And imaam does sujuud as sahw after tasleem	If he does not know if he met or not the imaam in his mistake • He completes his salaah	Sujuud as sahw is not binding

 $^{^{\}rm 8}$ The sujuud as sahw is preferably before tasleem because it is more part of salaah

 d. The Masbuuq He joins imaam late in salaah And imaam makes a mistake 	Example: imaam forgot a rakaa and he is alerted and returns • He joins the imaam and prays with him • He completes his own salaah after the imaam finishes his salaah
2.e. The MasbuuqHe forgot he joined late and he makes tasleem	If he remembers • He completes his salaah and he does sujuud as sahw He does not return to complete his salaah	After his own tasleem
with imaam	His salaah is invalid
 3. a. The Imaam He makes a mistake in the sunnah of the salaah and he is alerted 	Example: imaam recites al Fatiha loud in a silent salaah • Sujuud as sahw is not obligation • It is ok even if it is done before tasleem	After tasleem is preferable
3.	If he returns, his salaah is valid	After tasleem
b. The ImaamHe makes an extra rakaa and he is alerted	If he does not return • His salaah is invalid
3.	It is forbidden for him to return • He completes his salaah and he does sujuud as sahw	Before tasleem
c. The ImaamHe forgets the first tashahudAnd is alerted when	If he returns and he does not know it is forbidden • He had now made an addition in standing • He makes sujuud as sahw	After tasleem
standing fully erect	If he returns after standing fully erect and he knows it is forbidden • His salaah is invalid
4. A person enters witr with intention of doing 2 + 1 rakaat	If he forgets to say tasleem after two rakaatWitr can be prayed in three rakaat and there is nothing upon him	No
5. A person makes mistake in recitation	• It does not change the format of salaah, there is nothing upon him	No

Five Levels of Prayer9

Ibn al-Qayyim (RadiAllahu 'Anhu) said:

And mankind, with regard to their performance of prayer are in five levels:

The First: The level of the one who is negligent and wrongs his soul: He is the one who falls short in performing wudhu properly, performing the prayer upon its time and within its specified limits, and in fulfilling its essential pillars.

The Second: The one who guards his prayers upon their proper times and within their specified limits, fulfils their essential pillars and performs his wudhu with care. However, his striving (in achieving the above) is wasted due to whisperings in his prayer so he is taken away by thoughts and ideas.

The Third: The one who guards his prayers within the specified limits, fulfils their essential pillars and strives with himself to repel the whisperings, thoughts and ideas. He is busy struggling against his enemy (Shaytaan) so that he does not steal from the prayer. On account of this he is engaged in (both) prayer and jihad.

The Fourth: The one who stands for the prayer, completes and perfects its due rights, its essential pillars, performs it within its specified limits and his heart becomes engrossed in safeguarding its rights and specified limits, so that nothing is wasted from it. His whole concern is directed towards its establishment, its completion and its perfection, as it should be. His heart is immersed in the prayer and in enslavement to his Lord the Exalted.

The Fifth: The one who stands for the prayer like the one mentioned above. However, on top of this, he has taken and placed his heart in front of his Lord, looking towards Him with his heart with anticipation, (his heart) filled with His love and His might, as if he sees and witnesses Allah. The whisperings, thoughts and ideas have vanished and the coverings, which are between him and his Lord, are raised. What is between this person and others with respect to the prayer is superior and greater than what is between the heavens and the earth. This person is busy with his Lord, delighted with Him.

The First type will be punished, the second type will be held to account, the third will have his sins and shortcomings expiated, the fourth will be rewarded and the fifth will be close to his Lord, because he will receive the portion of the one who makes his prayer the delight and pleasure of his eye. Whoever makes his prayer, the delight and pleasure of his eye, will have the nearness to his Lord made the delight and pleasure of his eye in the hereafter. He will also be made a pleasure to the eye in this world since whoever makes Allah the pleasure of his eye in this world; every other eye will become delighted and pleased with him.

So, what level are you?
