

'Crosswind' Creswell-Turner Anthony. (RAF n°152668)

War Medal 1939-45, 1939-45 Star, Air Crew Europe Star, ...

Son of Air Commodore Creswell Turner and Norah Ethel Turner of Three Mile Cross Berkshire. Born September 1923 in Farnham, Surrey. Promoted F/O (war substantive) wef 9 January 44. Promoted F/Lt (war substantive) wef 9 July 45. Probable date of commissioning 9 July 43. Flew also with 610 Sqn. When this unit was disbanded, he joined 350 Squadron where he arrived on 18 March 1945. Shot down during an Armed Recce. in the region Aschendorf - Meppen - Lingen and made POW. On 16th September 1946, he was killed whilst flying in Spitfire IX, MJ843 of the Fighter Command Communication Sqn, which crashed near Bovington after the port wing and tailplane broke away during recovery from a loop. He is buried in Hillingdon and Uxbridge Cemetery

His claims are :

??/??/44 1/2 V-1

(610 Sqn)

Close Window