

PASSOVER AND FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread are celebrated in the month of Abib,
It gives an account of Israel's bondage and Pharaoh's stubborn will.

The children of Israel were held as slaves,
Deprived of Freedom until their graves.

The Most High heard their cries from above,
And raised up the man Moses to deliver them with love.

Ten plagues The Most High struck,
And the gods of Egypt were out of luck.

THE PLAGUES ON EGYPT EXODUS 7-12
1	 BLOOD (7:14-24) The Nile, along with all of the water in Egypt, turns into blood. But Pharaoh does not let the Israelites go.
2	 FROGS (7:25 - 8:15) Frogs cover the land of Egypt. Pharaoh promises to let the Israelites go, but changes his mind.
3	 GNATS (8:16-19) The dust turns to gnats, which cover the people and animals of Egypt. But Pharaoh does not let the Israelites go.
4	 FLIES (8:20-32) Flies fill the houses and land of Egypt. Pharaoh promises to let the Israelites go, but changes his mind.
5	 LIVESTOCK (9:1-7) All of the livestock of the Egyptians die. But Pharaoh does not let the Israelites go.
6	 BOILS (9:8-12) Festering boils break out on the Egyptians and their animals. But Pharaoh does not let the Israelites go.
7	 HAIL (9:13-35) Hail strikes down everything in the fields - humans, animals and trees. Pharaoh asks for forgiveness and promises to let the Israelites go, but changes his mind.
8	 LOCUSTS (10:1-20) Locusts devour every tree and plant in the land of Egypt. Pharaoh asks for forgiveness, but does not let the Israelites go.
9	 DARKNESS (10:21-29) Darkness covers the land of Egypt for three days. Pharaoh promises to let the Israelites go, but changes his mind.
10	 FIRSTBORN (11:1-10; 12:29-32) Every firstborn son and firstborn of the cattle in Egypt dies. Pharaoh finally lets the Israelites leave Egypt, only to change his mind and pursue them to the Red Sea.

With unleavened bread,
Our people fled.

The Red Sea was parted and Israel walked through,
It was the whole nation and not just a few.

The Egyptians saw this and tried to enter at the same time,
But the pillar of fire held them back at the line.

During this time, bitter herbs, wine, unleavened bread and roasted lamb must be eaten,

For we must give reverence and praise to The Most High for this set apart season.
