

Project Plan Molly Schultz

Project Information

Project Title:	STAR Stories
What is the problem that will be addressed?	Job seekers have trouble getting positions because they are unable to share success stories accurately and concisely in response to behavioral questions in interviews. Job seekers must be able to describe past accomplishments to demonstrate how they will perform in a new position.
Project Description:	This eLearning module will be focusing on basic job interview skills, specifically telling stories about past accomplishments.

Roles and Responsibilities

Learning Designer:	Molly Schultz
Critical Project Stakeholders:	Mike Johnson & Earle Hart (Passport to Employment)
Subject Matter Experts:	Mike Johnson & Earle Hart (Passport to Employment) Passport to Employment Guidebook
Other Contributors:	N/A

Preliminary Project Details

Target Audience:	Adult job seekers who have been out of the job market for 6 months to a year.
Project Goal:	Job seekers will be more confident sharing success stories and describing past accomplishments accurately and concisely in response to behavioral questions in interviews. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will identify and develop stories about past professional accomplishments.

Project Plan Molly Schultz

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will be able to appropriately apply accomplishment stories to the most common job interview questions.
LMS Platform or Authoring Tool to be Used:	Articulate Rise
Description of Deliverables:	Needs analysis Course Design Document Storyboard template Script for the audio and dialogues Standalone, self-paced, asynchronous eLearning module that includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Videos• Narration• downloadable job aid• learning activities• Quizzes