1 Is the service Safe?

I understand my responsibility to protect and safeguard Service Users from bullying, harassment, avoidable harm, neglect, abuse and discrimination
Staff who administer medication have competency assessments completed regularly
I give Service Users their medicine according to the Care Plan and store it correctly and safely. I have been given the training required to administer/prompt medication
The Service User is involved in reviewing their medicines and supported to be as independent as possible
I understand who is responsible for maintaining the Service User's equipment and quickly report any maintenance issues to the correct agency
There are enough staff to make sure that Service Users receives a reliable service that is not rushed. Staff have the right mix of skills to make sure the Service Users are kept safe
I am encouraged to seek help when I feel I am being asked to do something that I am not prepared or trained for. I am positively supported to challenge and report any poor practice and I am confident this would be acted upon
I know how to support Service Users to stay safe but also have as much freedom as possible to do the things they want to do
Staff protect the dignity and human rights of the Service Users and respect them as individuals
The Service User is kept up to date when staff need to change at short notice, so they know who to expect
When I cover for staff, I am fully briefed so I can seamlessly support the Service User according to their Care Plan

2 Is the service Effective?

	1	2	3	4
The Service User is always introduced to any staff who are going to provide their care
I have the right knowledge, qualifications and skills to carry out my role
I received a comprehensive induction, including shadowing more experienced staff
I receive training in a method that suits me and develops my skills, and Potton Services supports my continuous professional development
I receive supervision and appraisal which help me develop skills
I have an employment contract and understand the terms and conditions
If required, I am registered with the necessary professional body and understand and work within the code of practice
When needed, the Service User's family and friends are also involved in decisions about their care
I know about the health needs and personal wishes of the Service Users I support and they are given as much choice and control as possible
If applicable to the Care Plan, I make sure the Service User gets the right food and drink they need and that they have enough of it
I understand the laws around consent and always seek informed consent to care or treatment
