Happy Easter!

After 40 days of preparation, the Church has yet again celebrated and commemorated the sacred final days of our Lord's earthly life: Holy Thursday, when He gave us His Body and Blood as our sacred food to sustain us; Good Friday, when He suffered and died to open the gates of Heaven for us after they had been shut because of sin; Holy Saturday as the world watched the silent tomb with bated breath, hoping that Jesus would be proved true. And now, after 40 long days of preparation, we finally come to Easter Sunday. Christ, by rising from the dead, has shown us that death will not have the last word, but that God, having conquered it through the resurrection of Jesus from the dead, will conquer the deaths of all those who have been united with Christ through Baptism (Romans 6:3). We need not fear death, it has been conquered by God's love!

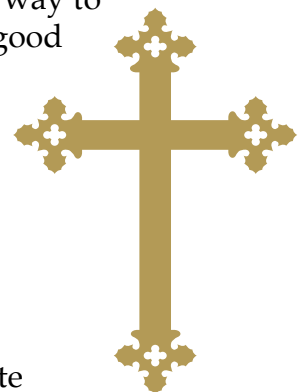

I say all this because Easter is always a full day. We have so many people visiting from out of town or coming back from school or work. We also have people who, for various reasons, may have been away from the Church. All this in addition to the band of faithful who have been here the whole time. No matter which of these groups you most identify with, I want you to know that you are welcome here at Holy Cross Family of Parishes!

The Catholic Church is not here for the perfect, but rather for sinners--people who struggle to do good and avoid evil. It was for them that Christ suffered, died, and rose. It was for you and--I say this sincerely--for sinners such as myself, that Christ came, taught, died, and rose. You do not have to be perfect to enter this Church, far from it. All you need is a desire to allow the Father's love to perfect you and work in your life. And so I want to end with an invitation:

If you've been away from the Church and Jesus Christ, either physically by not attending Mass on Sundays or spiritually by going through the motions without a deeper sense of that "being perfected by the Father's love", I invite you this Easter to let Jesus in! He never makes our life worse, but only better. He alone has the power to impart meaning and passion, healing and love into our lives. Each of us have things about ourselves that we wish were better. But so many of us are missing the vital ingredient: God! God is the key to finding true and lasting joy and happiness in your life that can endure through both the good and the bad times. And this God wants you! Before receiving Him in Holy Communion, let Him raise you from the spiritual death of sin in the Sacrament of Confession. This is the way to allow Him to be powerful and effective in your life. I let Jesus into my life through a good Confession back in 2009 and I haven't regretted that decision for a moment.

If you're not ready for that, you're still welcome here. But just know that our Savior knocks at the door of your heart, waiting for you to welcome Him in! Happy Easter, we're glad that you are here!

Your priests,

Fr. Alexander Witt, Fr. Joseph Pasala, Fr. Ethan Moore, and Fr. Barry Stechschulte

Sacramental Information

Wedding Banns

II Tony Schulze & Courtney Stalder
II Joshua Homan & Haley Kahlig

And the two shall become one.

Sacrament of Matrimony

The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony involves more than just "booking" a particular date for a wedding. Please keep in mind that church dates are limited. It is highly recommended to book the church when booking your reception hall. Also, since the marriage preparation process usually takes several months to complete, please contact the Family Office at least nine months in advance to start the marriage preparation process.

Baptismal Sponsors

This is an honor, but so much more. Whether for Baptism or Confirmation, being a sponsor means that you are promising to assist the parents in raising this person in the Catholic Faith. In order to fulfill that responsibility, the sponsor needs to be a practicing Catholic. This means that prayer, scripture, the sacraments and especially Mass are important priorities in his/her life. This also means that a sponsor needs to be a fully initiated Catholic who has received the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation, and, if married, was married in the Catholic Church.

Baptismal Class

Fort Recovery Classes are held on Tuesdays at 7 pm. The next class at Fort Recovery for 2025 is July 8, 2025. Please call 419-375-4153 to register. Coldwater Classes are held on the 3rd Sunday of the month at 7 pm. Please call 419-678-4802 to register. The Baptismal Class is required for all first-time parents.

Saint of the Week - St. Anselm

For anyone disheartened at how easily contemporary discussions of disputed Church-State issues escalate from civil discourse to shrill polemic, Anselm provides perspective. Grounded in the Benedictine Rule's balanced "prayer and work," this monk-scholar, called from his Abbey to become Archbishop of Canterbury, was thrust into firestorms of political intrigue, himself the target of warring bishops and nobles, kings and popes. Yet from depths of inner peace, Anselm wrote this moving exhortation by which today's Liturgy of the Hours celebrates him: "Rise up, insignificant man! From your preoccupations, flee a while. From your turbulent thoughts, hide for a time. Your crushing responsibilities cast aside. Your burdensome business lay down. Free a little space for God. Rest a little while in him!" "Faith seeking understanding" was his strikingly contemporary motto; and though renowned as an erudite philosopher-theologian, Anselm also left personal letters, profound for their insights on Christian friendship. Along with those, he composed "A Prayer for My Friends" and "A Prayer for My Enemies," reminding us that those who love God most passionately are also those who love others most humanly. — Peter Scagnelli
