Bulletin Reflection from the Summer Seminarian

Holy Cross Family of Parishes – Fort Recovery & Coldwater, OH

My summer has consisted of multiple rhythms of life: from a 33-day Eucharistic pilgrimage in my native land of New Hampshire (which I fondly call “the Shire”), to the bells rung by Franciscan brothers in Massachusetts, it now concludes in the glory-filled fields of corn and cattle here in Mercer County. In the peace that rural farm life and Catholic Christendom provide, I pray you do not take for granted the heart of it all...

My time on summer assignment has not disappointed. It has been thrilling, and at times even dangerous—ask the couple of trees I inadvertently ran into (a certain Timmerman will reassure you that the tree is okay)...

But I’ve been asking myself: how do we remain dangerous for the King, Jesus Christ? In a world that prizes comfort and safety, Christ calls His disciples to something greater—to risk everything for the Gospel. That is the kind of holy danger the world needs.

The Church is in a year of Jubilee, and its theme—“Pilgrims of Hope”—is not wishful thinking. It is the fruit of endurance, as St. Paul writes: “We even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope—” (Romans 5:3–4). In this family of parishes, I’ve seen the spirit of St. Joseph alive—in hardworking fathers, faithful mothers, and families who trust God in uncertainty, tragedy, and joy. We are all on a path toward the Father, and the saints walk beside us—especially St. Joseph, protector, provider, and preserver of the Holy Family and ours. And why does hope not disappoint? “...because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” (Romans 5:5)

My discernment with the Franciscans of the Poor Christ this summer confirmed that while I may not be called to religious vows, I am called to a life of simplicity and greater poverty. What comforts—though often good in themselves—might keep us from fully receiving Christ’s call to holiness? This is our only priority; whether in marriage, priesthood, or religious life, our universal calling is to be saints. And that road is not wide. It is, as Jesus says: “Enter through the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction... But how narrow the gate and constricted the road that leads to life. And those who find it are few” (Matthew 7:13–14).

As I return to seminary and continue preparation for the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, I do so with gratitude and hope. This journey is not mine to willfully control. Whenever I try to grasp, I lose my way. But when I surrender—when I come to Jesus as a laborer, heavy-laden with burdens—He fulfills His promise: “I will give you rest... for my yoke is easy, and my burden light” (Matthew 11:28, 30). And he is a Good Shepherd. The best.

Please pray for me, as I pray for you. May we walk this narrow way together—faithful, full of joy, and yes... living ALL-IN for JESUS CHRIST—for it is the only way to a life abundant and a life everlasting.

Stay dangerous for the King!!!

Godspeed,

John(ny) Ambrose Gabriel Kiernan

Discipleship I, Archdiocese of Cincinnati

St. Peter

ST. PETER RELIGION BUILDING UPDATE

— Thanks to the generosity of so many in our community of parishes, St. Peter has successfully funded the project to renovate the exteriors of the religion buildings. The St. Peter Parish Council would like to thank you all for joining in this effort to keep these two buildings active and useful places for our parish community. Your willingness to support the needs of the St. Peter Parish is a great way to glorify God by your life.

THANK YOU! — We are pleased to say that the St. Anthony Garage Sale was a huge success again this year. This is only possible because of such support from not only St. Anthony but the parish cluster and the entire community. We, the committee, cannot thank you enough who donated items, those who help set-up, work during the sale, and also the dreaded job of tearing down. Without the participation of so many volunteers, the garage sale would not be possible; so, thank each and everyone for a job well done. This will allow us to help get our church beautified. - Garage Sale Committee

Saint of the Week - Saint Maximilian Kolbe

Perhaps most well known for his martyrdom in a concentration camp where he offered to die in place of a father with a family, his story of sainthood began much earlier. He entered the minor seminary of the Conventual Franciscans in his native Poland at a young age and was ordained a priest at 24. He founded The Militia of the Immaculata to fight evil through the positive witness of a holy life. He also began a magazine to spread the good news and it eventually reached one million subscribers. All that he did was driven by his devotion to the Blessed Mother, for it was she who appeared to him holding in her hands one white and one red crown, asking him if he would like to have purity or martyrdom. He chose both and lived out his days dedicated to her and her son, until he died by starvation and lethal injection to save another man's life. Although we may not be called to physically die for another, there are many ways we can die to ourselves each day in love and service to others. Let us follow the example of Saint Maximilian Kolbe and be willing to lose our lives that we might find eternal life in heaven. —Tami Urcia
